SCOTTISH LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP WINS

Rangers 54, Celtic 49, Aberdeen 4, Hearts 4, Hibernian 4, Dumbarton 2, Dundee 1, Dundee U 1, Kilmarnock 1, Motherwell 1, Third Lanark 1.

The totals for Rangers and Dumbarton each include the shared championship of 1890–91.

Since the formation of the Scottish Football League in 1890, there have been periodic reorganisations of the leagues to allow for expansion, improve competition and commercial aspects of the game. The table below lists the league names by tier and chronology. This table can be used to assist when studying the records.

Tier	Division
1	Scottish League Division I	1890–1939
	Scottish League Division A	1946–1956
	Scottish League Division I	1956–1975
	Premier Division	1975–1998
	Scottish Premier League	1998–2013
	SPFL Premiership	2013–
2	Scottish League Division II	1893–1939
	Scottish League Division B	1946–1956
	Scottish League Division II	1956–1975
	First Division	1975–2013
	SPFL Championship	2013–
3	Scottish League Division III	1923–1926
	Scottish League Division C	1946–1949
	Second Division	1975–2013
	SPFL League One	2013–
4	Third Division	1994–2013
	SPFL League Two	2013–

In 2013–14 the SPFL introduced play-offs to determine a second promotion/relegation place for the Premiership, Championship and League One.

The team finishing second bottom of the Premiership plays two legs against the team from the Championship that won the eliminator games played between the teams finishing second, third and fourth.

For both the Championship and League One, the team finishing second bottom joins the teams from second, third and fourth places of the lower league in a play-off series of two-legged semi-finals and finals.

In 2014–15 a play-off was introduced for promotion/relegation from League Two. The team finishing bottom of League Two plays two legs against the victors of the eliminator games between the winners of the Highland and Lowland leagues.

INTERNATIONAL DIRECTORY

The latest available information has been given regarding numbers of clubs and players registered with FIFA, the world governing body. Where known, official colours are listed. With European countries, League tables show a number of signs – (a) relegated, + (a) re-instated after play-offs, ↑ (a) promoted after play-offs.

There are 211 member associations in the six FIFA Confederations, indicated in brackets after the regional heading. The four home countries, England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales, are dealt with elsewhere in the Yearbook; but basic details appear in this directory. Gibraltar was admitted to full UEFA membership in 2013; Northern Cyprus is not a member of FIFA or UEFA and is the subject of an international territorial dispute. From March 2014 FIFA permitted Kosovo to play friendlies against full member nations; Kosovo was granted full membership of both FIFA and UEFA in May 2016 and entered World Cup 2018 qualification in September 2016. (Gibraltar and Kosovo play home UEFA- and FIFA-regulated competition qualifiers at neutral venues.) Gozo is included here for its close links with Maltese football. N.B. In this edition international results for 2017–18 include matches played from 3 July 2017 to 15 July 2018.

There are 12 associate members and others who have affiliation to their confederations; the most recent admission to full membership was South Sudan in 2011. The current associate members are as follows: AFC: Northern Mariana Islands; CAF: Reunion, Zanzibar; CONCACAF: Bonaire, French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Saint-Martin, Sint Maarten. OFC: Kiribati, Niue, Tuvalu. Matches between full members and associate members are indicated with *.

FIFA WORLD CUP 2018 – STATISTICS

- The Golden Ball for the best player at the FIFA World Cup 2018 was awarded to Luka Modric of Croatia for his outstanding displays in Russia.
- The Golden Boot for the top scorer at the FIFA World Cup 2018 was awarded to Harry Kane of England. He scored six goals in helping England reach the semi-finals for the first time since Italy 1990.
- The Golden Glove for the tournament's most outstanding goalkeeper was awarded to Belgium's Thibaut Courtois.
- The Young Player Award was awarded to Kylian Mbappe of France.
- The Fair Play Award for the team with the best disciplinary record went to Spain. Only teams reaching the knockout phase were eligible.
- Didier Deschamps become only the third person to win the World Cup as a player and as a manager. The others were Brazil's Mario Zagallo and Germany's Franz Beckenbauer.
- Mbappe (19 years 207 days) is the youngest player to score in a World Cup final since Pele for Brazil in Sweden 1958 (17 years 249 days).
- It was the fourth World Cup in succession won by a European team – the first time a single confederation has won four in a row.
- The final had the most goals in regulation time since Sweden 1958 (Brazil 5 Sweden 2).
- Belgium's rally to defeat Japan 3-2 was the first match for 48 years in which a team has overcome a two-goal deficit. The last time was West Germany defeating England by the same score in Mexico 1970.
- A record number of 29 penalties were awarded in the tournament. 22 were scored and VAR contributed to 11 decisions, including the one in the final.
- England scored 9 goals stemming from set-pieces, which is the highest goal tally for any team at a World Cup tournament.
- There was also a record 12 own goals, double the previous record from France 1998.
- The total number of goals scored at Russia 2018 was 169, just behind the record of 171 (Brazil 2014 and France 1998).

FOOTBALL CLUB CHAPLAINCY

Although Martin was a country boy, he had always followed professional football. He'd been through despair at the occasional relegation suffered by his local club, but these had been more than balanced when his favourites soared to promotion or FA Cup success.

Being a bright and devoted young man, Martin studied at University, then at Theological College before being called to serve in a busy inner-city parish.

However, Martin yearned for the countryside, and for his favourite football club, so that when a vacancy occurred in a rural parish some twenty miles from it, he applied to the Bishop and was soon appointed.

The bonus for Martin was a double one. Not only was he able to drive to the town where his football club was based, but he was swiftly approached concerning his availability to serve as honorary chaplain there, and after meetings with the club chairman, manager, physio and club captain, Martin was invited to take the new post.

That all took place more than a decade ago, but Martin served his club superbly, delighting club officials and sponsors, as well as the players with his open, friendly and positive approach to a such a degree, that when he was moved from his rural idyll to a busy urban parish, he was swiftly appointed as honorary chaplain to the local Premier League club.

Who says that prayer doesn't change things?

OBITUARIES

Clark Allison (Born: Dunfermline, 17 January 1963. Died: October 2017.) Defender Clark Allison had a brief association with Cowdenbeath in the 1981–82 season when he made six senior appearances for them. He later forged a 13-year career in the Juniors with Kelty Hearts.

Barry Ansell (Born: Small Heath, Birmingham, 29 September 1947. Died: 2018.) Full-back Barry Ansell played as an amateur for Aston Villa reserves before turning professional in October 1967, but his only senior appearance came at Cardiff on Boxing Day 1967. He was released on a free transfer at the end of the season and emigrated to South Africa, where he continued his career with Bloemfontein City, Arcadia Shepherds and Berea Park.

Tommy Andrews (Died: 8 March 2018.) Tommy Andrews was a centre half who was initially an amateur for Portadown. He made two appearances for the Northern Ireland Amateur international team in April 1951, captaining the side against Scotland, before turning professional. Later he had a spell with Coleraine before returning to play for Ports.

Jimmy Armfield, OBE, DL (Born: Denton, Lancashire, 21 September 1935. Died: Bispham, Blackpool, 22 January 2018.) Jimmy Armfield was one of the all-time greatest players in the history of Blackpool FC before going on to successful careers in management and then the media. He signed amateur forms for the Seasiders at the age of 16 and made his first-team debut in December 1954. Once established in the line-up he was a regular for some 16 seasons, creating a club record of 626 senior appearances. An accomplished right-back who was selected as the best in his position at the 1962 World Cup finals, he won 43 full caps for England, captaining the side on 18 occasions. When his playing career was over he had spells as manager of both Bolton Wanderers and Leeds United, winning the Third Division title with Bolton in 1972–73 and achieving a top-ten finish in the First Division with Leeds in each of his four seasons at the club; he also took them to the European Cup final in 1975. He subsequently built a third career in the game working in the media, firstly writing for newspapers and latterly as a commentator for BBC Radio 5 Live.

Brian Bades (Born: Farnworth, Lancashire, 3 July 1939. Died: 13 March 2018.) Brian Bades made two appearances at inside-right for Accrington Stanley in February 1962, shortly before the club resigned from Football League membership. After a brief spell with Horwich RMI he spent the 1962–63 season with Stockport County without breaking into the first team, then joined Chester in the 1963 close season. He added a further 17 senior appearances during his time at Sealand Road before moving back into non-league football with Runcorn.

Mal Bailey (Born: Biddulph, Staffordshire, 14 April 1950. Died: 14 November 2017.) Mal Bailey developed in the youth set-up at Port Vale where he spent three years as a professional, making two first team appearances at right-half towards the end of the 1968–69 season. He later moved into non-league football, switching to the centre of defence and playing for Northwich Victoria, Runcorn and then Altrincham where he gained success in the FA Trophy (1978) and Alliance Premier League (1979–80, 1980–81).

Ray Barnard (Born: Middlesbrough, 16 April 1933. Died: 7 July 2017.) Ray Barnard was a full-back who won representative honours for Yorkshire and England Schools and made his senior debut for Middlesbrough at the age of 17. After completing his National Service he became a regular for Boro' for the best part of three seasons, making over 100 appearances. He concluded his career with a three-year spell at Lincoln City before switching to non-league football with Grantham.

Dick Bate (Born: Birmingham, 25 June 1946. Died: 25 April 2018.) Dick Bate had a rather undistinguished career as a player, featuring as a part-timer in the Northern Premier League while working as a teacher in Sheffield. He subsequently turned to coaching with considerable success and he was the FA's North West regional coach between 1980 and 1985. A spell as head coach of Notts County led to his appointment as manager of Southend United in June 1987, but he lasted just ten games, only one of which was won. He continued to work in coaching for the rest of his working life, notably with Leeds United and as the technical director of the Malaysia national team (1992–1995) and of the Canada Soccer Association (October 2005 to July 2006). He also had a spell working in the England set-up and in April 1998 was briefly caretaker manager of the England women's team.

Cyril Beavon (Born: Barnsley, 27 September 1937. Died: 22 December 2017.) Cyril Beavon was a full-back who joined the then Headington United in January 1959. After making his club debut in a Southern League Cup tie he missed just one first-team game over the next three-and-a-half seasons during which time the club twice won the Southern League title. He appeared in the club's first Football League game at Barrow in August 1962 and in total he made 464 appearances for the U's in his ten years at the club. He later played for Banbury United before becoming manager of Bicester Town. His son (Stuart Beavon senior) and grandson (also Stuart Beavon) both played senior football.

Oliver Beeby (Born: Whetstone, Leicestershire, 2 October 1934. Died: Aberystwyth, 8 March 2018.) Oliver Beeby was capped by England Youths and signed for Leicester City in May 1953, making his first-team debut two years later. This proved to be his only senior outing for the Foxes, with his career put on hold by National Service. He went on to make 18 appearances for Notts County in the 1959–60 season when they gained promotion from the old Division Four, then played in Southern League football with Oxford United and Burton Albion.

George Bentley (Born: December 1922. Died: 18 December 2017.) George Bentley was an outside-right who made two appearances for Aston Villa in the 1941–42 season when the first team played in the Birmingham League due to issues over the availability of Villa Park.

Roy Bentley (Born: Shirehampton, Bristol, 17 May 1924. Died: 20 April 2018.) Roy Bentley served in the Royal Navy during the war and made over 30 appearances for Bristol City in the emergency competitions but when peacetime football resumed he signed for Newcastle United. He spent 18 months on Tyneside and was a great success, netting two on his debut and at a rate of a goal every other game. However, he never really settled in the north and in January 1948 signed for Chelsea. He spent the best years of his career at Stamford Bridge, winning 12 England caps and captaining the team that won the Football League in 1954–55. After making more than 350 appearances for the Blues he moved on to spells with Fulham and then Queens Park Rangers. Soon after his playing career was over he went into management, firstly with Reading (January 1963 to February 1969) and then Swansea Town (August 1969 to October 1972). In his first season at the Vetch Field he led the Swans to promotion from the old Division Four. At the time of his death he was Chelsea's oldest surviving player and the last surviving member of England's 1950 World Cup squad.

Peter Birchumshaw (Born: Mansfield, 29 August 1938. Died: 24 June 2017.) Peter Birchumshaw was a left winger who signed professional forms for Notts County as a teenager and went on to make over 70 first team appearances for the Magpies. In the summer of 1962 he moved on to Bradford City, spending a season at Valley Parade and then six months at Stockport before joining Southern League club Cambridge City.

Eddie Blackburn (Born: Houghton-le-Spring, 18 April 1957. Died: 20 April 2018.) Goalkeeper Eddie Blackburn began his career with Hull City where he was mostly an understudy, firstly to Jeff Wealands and then Tony Norman. Moving to York City in April 1980 he excelled in his first full season when he missed just one match and was voted as the club's player of the season. In December 1982 he signed for Hartlepool United and was mostly a regular in five seasons at the Victoria Ground, making a total of 175 competitive appearances. His career was ended by injury when playing in Sweden with Halmstads BK.

Alan Boswell (Born: West Bromwich, 8 August 1943. Died: 24 August 2017.) Goalkeeper Alan Boswell made his debut for Walsall at the age of 18, and seized his opportunity, never looking back. When the Saddlers were relegated at the end of 1962–63 he moved on to Shrewsbury Town where he enjoyed four seasons as a near ever-present, making over 250 appearances. After an unsuccessful time at Wolverhampton Wanderers, he finished his senior career with a flourish at Bolton Wanderers and Port Vale. He later played for and, briefly, managed Oswestry Town.

Eric Brodie (Born: Circa 1943. Died: 18 April 2018.) Eric Brodie was a left back who developed with Methil Star and Dundee United and then spent three seasons on the books of East Fife after signing in the summer of 1965. He made a total of 89 senior appearances during his time at Bayview before leaving the senior game.

Stan Brown (Born: Lewes, 15 September 1941. Died: March 2018.) Stan Brown started out as a forward, winning a regular place in the Fulham line-up in the 1962–63 season. He went on to make just short of 400 appearances during his time at Craven Cottage, keeping his place as the team dropped from the First to the Third Division in the mid-1960s. He made a useful contribution to the 1970–71 promotion campaign as Fulham regained their place in Division Two, although by this time he was mostly playing in midfield or defence. After a brief loan spell with Brighton & Hove Albion he finished his career at Colchester United. Stan was one of three brothers who played for Brighton (Alan, Irvin & Stan) while his cousin Gary Brown also played for the club.

David Bumpstead (Born: Ramham, Essex, 6 November 1935. Died: Upminster, Essex, 26 August 2017.) Inside-forward David Bumpstead was a member of the Tooting & Mitcham side that reached the FA Cup second round in 1956–57 and they were well on their way to the Isthmian League title when he joined Millwall towards the end of the 1957–58 campaign. He marked his debut in senior football with a goal in a 3-1 win over Gillingham, and turned professional that summer. David went on to make over 120 appearances for the Lions and Bristol Rovers then had a spell out of the game. Later he managed Southern League clubs Brentwood and Chelmsford City. He won a single cap for England Amateurs against France in April 1958.

Dennis Bushby (Born: Poole, 25 December 1933. Died: Poole, 3 October 2017.) Dennis Bushby was a wing-half who developed in local football before joining Bournemouth, initially on amateur forms, before turning professional. All his senior appearances came in the 1957–58 season and he later moved on to play for Peterborough United (then members of the Midland League) and Poole Town.

Peter Butler (Born: Nottingham, 3 October 1942. Died: 10 January 2018.) Goalkeeper Peter Butler signed for Notts County in November 1960, but although he spent six seasons on the books at Meadow Lane he was mostly second choice to George Smith, managing just short of 50 senior appearances. He moved on to Bradford City for the 1966–67 campaign before switching to Midland League football with Worksop Town. He was the brother of John Butler, who played for Notts County and Chester, and the son of Herbert (Dick) Butler who played pre-war for Birmingham City and Crewe Alexandra.

Dave Caldwell (Born: Clydebank, 7 May 1932. Died: Balmedie, Aberdeenshire, 2 August 2017.) Left-back Dave Caldwell joined Aberdeen in the summer of 1953 and was a near ever-present in his first season with the Dons when he was a member of the team defeated by Celtic in the Scottish Cup final. Further honours followed as he won a League Cup winners' medal in 1955–56 but after losing his place in the side he moved south to Rotherham United. He was mainly a reserve during his time at Millmoor, before concluding his senior career north of the border with spells at Morton, Fraserburgh and Keith. He spent the summers between 1962 and 1965 playing for Toronto City of the Eastern Canada Professional League.

Ronnie Cant (Born: Hillhead, Glasgow, 6 October 1953. Died: 8 June 2017.) Goalkeeper Ronnie Cant played most of his football in the Scottish amateurs. His senior career was limited to a couple of appearances for Queen's Park in the 1979–80 season although he later returned to the Hampden club as a goalkeeping coach.

Geoff Carter (Born: Northwich, 14 February 1943. Died: March 2018.) Geoff Carter was an outside left who joined the groundstaff at West Bromwich Albion in the summer of 1959, going on to sign professional forms shortly after his 17th birthday. He made his first-team debut at home to Arsenal shortly afterwards but in a six-year spell at The Hawthorns he was mostly a reserve, making a total of 15 senior appearances. In August 1967 he signed for Bury but in a season at Gigg Lane and a further six months at Bradford City he made little impact before returning to the West Midlands to play in non-league football.

Albert Collins (Born: Chesterfield, 15 April 1923. Died: Chesterfield, June 2017.) Albert Collins made over 70 appearances during wartime for Chesterfield and a highlight came when he played for the Spireites in the 1944–45 League North Cup semi-final. A winger who could play on either flank, he went on to make over 150 senior appearances in peacetime football, turning out for Halifax Town, Carlisle, Barrow, Bournemouth, Shrewsbury Town and Accrington Stanley. He was Chesterfield's oldest living player at the time of his death.

Mike Conroy (Born: Port Glasgow, 5 August 1932. Died: Bridge of Weir, Renfrewshire, 12 July 2017.) Mike Conroy was a wing-half who joined Celtic from Junior club St Anthony's early in 1953 and spent seven years at Parkhead. However, his career was disrupted by National Service and injuries and he made just eight competitive first-team appearances during his stay. One of his sons, Michael junior, also played for Celtic (1978–1982).

Billy Cook (Born: Galston, Ayrshire, 26 June 1940. Died: Adelaide, Australia, 2 July 2017.) A former Scotland Schools international, defender Billy Cook joined Kilmarnock as a youngster, but he was mostly a reserve during his six years at Rugby Park, unable to dislodge Matt Watson from the left-back slot. In the summer of 1963 he emigrated to Australia where he played with Victoria State League club Slavia-Port Melbourne for a number of years and went on to win six caps for his adopted country.

Neale Cooper (Born: Darjeeling, India, 24 November 1963. Died: Aberdeen, 28 May 2018.) Neale Cooper was a powerful and combative midfield player who made his first-team debut for Aberdeen as a 16-year-old. The Dons were managed by Alex Ferguson at the time and Neale went on to become an integral part of their highly successful team of the early 1980s, winning the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1983 as well as four Scottish Cups, a League Cup and two Scottish League titles. He moved to Aston Villa, but injuries restricted his appearances and it was not until he returned north to play for Dunfermline (following further brief spells with Rangers and Reading) that he returned to success, contributing to their 1995–96 promotion campaign. He later turned to management with Ross County (where he gained back-to-back promotions in 1998–99 and 1999–2000), Hartlepool United (two spells), Gillingham and Peterhead. He won 13 caps for Scotland U21s.

Ron Cooper (Born: Thorney, Peterborough, 28 August 1938. Died: Bourne, Lincolnshire, 13 April 2018.) Ron Cooper was a versatile defender who appeared mostly as a full-back throughout his career. He spent 11 seasons on the books of Peterborough United, making a few appearances in their Midland League days, but was then a reserve until stepping up to make his senior debut in October 1963. He went on to make 150 competitive appearances for Posh before moving on to play for Corby Town in the summer of 1969.

Tommy Cormie (Born: Forfar, 14 September 1935. Died: Forfar, 11 October 2017.) A right-sided forward, Tommy Cormie joined Forfar Athletic from local Junior outfit Forfar Celtic and spent three seasons on the club's books in the late 1950s. It was only in the 1958–59 campaign that he featured regularly for the first team, otherwise being mostly a back-up player.

Bill Coxon (Born: Derby, 28 April 1933. Died: Spondon, Derby, 6 March 2018.) Winger Billy Coxon signed professional forms for Derby County in May 1950 but he was unable to make it to the first team and after a spell in non-league with Ilkeston Town he returned to senior football, signing for Norwich City in May 1952. He scored on his debut for the Canaries and was a regular in the side from September 1955 before moving on to Lincoln City towards the end of the 1957–58 campaign. He stayed only briefly at Sincil Bank, departing for Bournemouth where he become one of the mainstays of the side, making over 200 first-team appearances before eventually leaving senior football at the end of the 1965–66 season.

Matt Crowe (Born: Bathgate, West Lothian, 4 July 1932. Died: Port Elizabeth, South Africa, 2017.) Matt Crowe was a wing-half who signed for Bradford Park Avenue as a 17-year-old. His professional career was initially restricted by injuries but he re-established himself back in Scotland with Partick Thistle and was a big success when he returned south of the border to join Norwich City. He made over 200 appearances for the Canaries and featured in the team that reached the semi-finals of the FA Cup in 1958–59. He later spent two seasons at Brentford, helping the Bees to the Division Four title in 1962–63, before going to play in South Africa.

Ken Cunningham (Born: Glasgow, 26 October 1941. Died: 31 July 2017.) Ken Cunningham was an inside-forward who scored the winning goal for Kirkintilloch Rob Roy in the 1961 Scottish Junior Cup final at Hampden. He subsequently featured in a couple of games for Falkirk and then moved south of the border to join Hartlepool but stayed for only four months before returning to Scotland to play for Ayr United. He returned to the Juniors and won a second Junior Cup winners' medal with Blantyre Victoria in 1970.

Bill Davies (Born: Middlesbrough, 16 May 1930. Died: Woodley, Berkshire, 2017.) Bill Davies signed professional forms for Hull City in April 1949, but progressed only as far as the reserve team at Boothferry Park. He then had spells at Leeds United and Scarborough before joining Reading midway through the 1952–53 season. Having made the transition from inside-forward to centre-half he broke into the Royals' first team at the end of 1954 and went on to make over 200 appearances during his time at Elm Park.

Eddie Davies (Born: Oswestry, 5 June 1937. Died: 2018.) Eddie Davies was a centre- or inside-forward who developed with Chirk AAA before joining Arsenal in August 1948. Although he didn't make the first team during his time at Highbury he made a single first-team appearance for Queens Park Rangers against Brentford in January 1951, scoring in the 1–1 draw, then had a season at Crewe where he made a handful of appearances. He subsequently played in the Birmingham League, where he scored prolifically for both Oswestry Town (champions in 1952–53) and Nuneaton Borough before injury ended his career in January 1954.

Mike Davock (Born: St Helens, 27 April 1935. Died: 19 February 2018.) Mike Davock was a winger who was on Everton's books as a youngster but it was from St Helens Town that he joined Stockport County in January 1957. In his first three seasons at Edgeley Park he was mostly a reserve but he was a regular from the 1959–60 season, going on to make over 250 senior appearances during his time at the club. In the summer of 1964 he moved on to play for Southern League club Poole Town.

Billy Day (Born: South Bank, 27 December 1936. Died: January 2018.) Billy Day was a winger who made his first team debut for Middlesbrough as an 18-year-old in October 1955. However, his early career was disrupted by National Service and injury and he was rarely a regular in the Boro' line up despite making over 100 senior appearances. He moved on to Newcastle United in March 1962 and then concluded his career with spells at Peterborough and Cambridge United, then members of the Southern League.

Alan Deakin (Born: Birmingham, 27 November 1941. Died: 2 January 2018.) Alan Deakin was a wing half who joined the Aston Villa groundstaff in January 1957, progressing to the professional ranks on reaching the age of 17. He gained a League Cup medal as a member of the Villa team that won the inaugural 1960–61 competition and went on to make over 250 appearances during his time at the club. He was also capped six times by England U-23s. Alan moved on to Walsall in October 1969 where he ended his senior career. His elder brother Mike also played in senior football and sadly also appears in these obituaries.

Mike Deakin (Born: Birmingham, 25 October 1933. Died: 18 July 2017.) Centre-forward Mike Deakin joined Crystal Palace from Birmingham League club Bromsgrove Rovers midway through the 1954–55 season. He did well at Selhurst Park, finishing as the club's top scorer in three of his four complete seasons there before moving on to Northampton Town and then Aldershot.

Bob Dennison (Born: Hull, 12 September 1932. Died: Willerby, East Yorkshire, 9 July 2017.) Bob Dennison joined Hull City as an amateur in 1952, turning professional during the summer of 1954, but apart from a lengthy spell in the second half of the 1955–56 season when he featured at right-back he was mostly a reserve during his time at Boothferry Park. After 25 senior appearances he moved on to Scarborough in the summer of 1958.

Dougie Devlin (Born: Glasgow, 17 March 1953. Died: 13 June 2017.) Midfielder Dougie Devlin was an apprentice with Wolverhampton Wanderers and was capped by Scotland at Youth international level but he was unable to graduate to the first team at Molineux. He spent the 1972–73 season at Walsall where he made a number of first-team appearances before following manager John Smith to play for Dundalk.

Ron Dickinson (Born: Coventry, 29 June 1930. Died: 2018.) Ron Dickinson was a centre-half who was spotted playing for RAF Oswestry during National Service, signing as a part-time professional with Shrewsbury Town in May 1953. He made a dozen first-team appearances for the Shrews then moved on to Coventry City for the 1954–55 season. However, he was unable to break into the first team at Highfield Road and after 12 months moved into non-league football with Bedworth Town.

Charlie Douglas (Born: Govan, Glasgow, 1924. Died: Brechin, 11 October 2017.) Charlie Douglas was a versatile forward who joined Montrose during the 1945–46 season. He was a regular for the remainder of that season, scoring in his first six games and finishing with a tally of 13 goals from 23 appearances. Nevertheless, he began the following season in the Juniors with Arbroath Victoria before returning to Links Park. He scored hat-tricks in his first two games but suffered a facial injury playing at Dens Park the following March which effectively ended his senior career.

Dermot Drummy (Born: Hackney, 16 January 1961. Died: 27 November 2017.) Dermot Drummy was a midfield player as a youngster and joined Arsenal as an apprentice on leaving school. He went on to make over 100 appearances for the club's reserve and youth teams, graduating to the professional ranks in January 1979. However, his only Football League experience came in a short loan spell with Blackpool during the 1979–80 season. Later he returned to the game coaching the Arsenal youth team and then with the Chelsea Academy before serving as head coach of Crawley Town from April 2016 to May 2017.

Kieron Durkan (Born: Chester, 1 December 1973. Died: Halton, Cheshire, 28 February 2018.) Kieron Durkan was a wide-right midfield player who developed through the youth set-up at Wrexham. He was transferred to Stockport County in February 1996 and the following season he was a regular in the side that reached the semi-finals of the League Cup and won promotion from the Second Division in 1996–97. He went on to make over 300 senior appearances, also turning out for Macclesfield Town, Rochdale and Swansea City. He was capped three times by the Republic of Ireland U21s.

Alec Eisentrager (Born: Hamburg, Germany, 20 July 1927. Died: August 2017.) Alec Eisentrager came to the UK as a German prisoner of war and made his name as footballer with Western League club Trowbridge Town. He signed for Bristol City in the summer of 1949 and went on to make over 200 appearances during his time at Ashton Gate. A stockily built inside forward who impressed with his ball play, he later played in the Southern League with Merthyr Tydfil and Chelmsford City. As a youngster he had played with the Hamburger SV youth teams.

Tommy Fairley (Born: Houghton le Spring, 12 October 1932. Died: 16 April 2017.) Goalkeeper Tommy Fairley joined Sunderland as a 17-year-old but was mostly a reserve during his time at Roker Park. After completing his National Service he signed for Carlisle United in the summer of 1956 and he was a near ever present during his first season at Brunton Park. He stayed two more seasons as back-up 'keeper then moved to Southern League club Cambridge City for the 1959–60 campaign.

Tommy Farrer (Born: Hoddesdon, 22 December 1922. Died: Maidstone, 16 November 2017.) Left-back Tommy Farrer was a member of the great Bishop Auckland team of the post-war period, featured in three FA Amateur Cup finals and gained representative honours for the Durham County FA. After eight seasons in the North East he returned south, signing for Walthamstow Avenue in March 1953. He was capped on 20 occasions by England Amateurs and also featured for Great Britain in the 1956 Olympic Games tournament.

John Faulkner (Born: Orpington, 10 March 1948. Died: 28 December 2017.) John Faulkner was on Charlton Athletic's books as a youngster before dropping into non-league football with Sutton United, for whom an FA Cup appearance against Leeds United earned him a move to Elland Road in March 1970. Injury meant his career at Leeds never really took off but a transfer to Luton Town earned him a reputation as something of a cult figure in the centre of defence. He made over 200 appearances in six seasons at Kenilworth Road then played in the NASL with Memphis Rogues and California Surf. Later he worked as a coach with both Luton and Norwich City.

Bobby Ferguson (Born: Dudley, Northumberland, 8 January 1948. Died: 28 March 2018.) As a player Bobby Ferguson was a left-back who developed through the junior and reserve teams for Newcastle United, making just a handful of first-team appearances. A move to Derby County followed, where he developed into a solid and dependable defender, playing in over 100 senior games. He subsequently had a spell with Cardiff City before becoming player-manager of Southern League Barry Town. He took on a similar role for Newport County from July 1969 but after a disastrous start to the 1970–71 season, which saw County without a win after 16 matches, he lost his job. Soon afterwards he linked up with fellow North Easterner Bobby Robson on the coaching staff at Ipswich Town and when Robson left to take charge of the England national team Bobby took over as manager, staying in post from August 1982 to May 1987. He later coached in the Middle East and with Sunderland and Birmingham City.

Rodney Fern (Born: Measham, Leicestershire, 13 December 1948. Died: 16 January 2018.) Rodney Fern signed as a professional for Leicester City shortly after his 18th birthday and went on to win an FA Cup runners-up medal with the Foxes in 1969. The following season he was City's leading scorer and he then helped them win a place back in the top flight in 1970–71. He subsequently moved to Luton Town and then Chesterfield where he switched to a role as a central striker and rediscovered his goalscoring touch. He went on to conclude his career with Rotherham United, where he was a member of the team that won the old Third Division title in 1980–81.

Franny Firth (Born: Dewsbury, 27 May 1956. Died: May 2018.) Franny Firth was a winger who joined Huddersfield Town as an apprentice in the summer of 1972, signing professional forms in November 1973. He was a member of the team that reached the FA Youth Cup final in 1973–74 when they lost out to Tottenham Hotspur over two legs and went on to play a number of first-team games before suffering a broken leg in October 1976. In February 1978 he resurrected his career with a move to Halifax Town and featured regularly during his time at the Shay, making over 150 senior appearances. A high point came with an appearance in the FA Cup third round win over Manchester City in January 1980. He ended his career with a season at Bury before switching to non-league football with Witton Albion.

Arthur Fitzsimons (Born: Dublin, 16 December 1929. Died: Dalkey, Co. Dublin, Ireland, 9 May 2018.) Arthur Fitzsimons was an intelligent and skilful inside-forward who signed for Middlesbrough from League of Ireland club Shelbourne in the summer of 1949. He went on to become an influential figure during his time at Ayresome Park, making over 200 appearances. He left towards the end of the 1958–59 season and following a brief association with Lincoln City he concluded his playing career at Mansfield Town. He later coached the Libya national team and Drogheda and was, for a brief period, manager of Shamrock Rovers.

Ronnie Foster (Born: Islington, 22 November 1938. Died: Reading, 28 July 2017.) Ronnie Foster was a skilful midfield schemer who signed for Leyton Orient from amateurs Clapton towards the end of the 1956–57 season. He went on to appear regularly for the O's in 1961–62 when they won promotion from the old Second Division but rarely featured in their season of top-flight football. He later enjoyed four useful seasons with Grimsby Town then had spells with Reading and in the USA with Dallas Tornado of the NASL, before concluding his senior career with a brief association with Brentford.

Albert Franks (Born: Boldon, County Durham, 13 April 1936. Died: 18 June 2017.) Albert Franks signed professional forms for Newcastle United towards the end of 1953 and spent seven seasons at St James' Park including a couple as a regular first-teamer. Spells in Scotland with Rangers and Morton were largely unsuccessful but he went on to make over 50 appearances for Lincoln City. He subsequently had a brief spell with Queen of the South before becoming player-manager of Scarborough.

Juan Carlos Garcia (Born: Tela, Atlantida, Honduras, 8 March 1988. Died: Tegucigalpa, Honduras, 8 January 2018.) Juan Carlos Garcia was a left-back who developed in Honduran football with the Marathon and Olimpia clubs before signing for Wigan Athletic in the summer of 2013. His only first-team appearance for the Latics was in a League Cup tie against Manchester City in September 2013 and he was due to spend the 2014–15 season on loan with CD Tenerife. He returned early, however, and shortly afterwards was diagnosed with leukaemia, which was the cause of his early death. He won 39 caps for Honduras.

Len Gaynor (Born: Ollerton, Nottinghamshire, 22 September 1925. Died: 26 September 2017.) Len Gaynor was an inside-forward who had a brief trial with Nottingham Forest Colts in the 1943–44 season, later joining Hull City towards the end of 1947–48. In three seasons at Boothferry Park he was mainly a reserve, but fared much better with Bournemouth, making over 50 first-team appearances. In March 1954 he signed for Southampton where he was briefly a regular in the side before concluding his career with spells at Aldershot and Yeovil Town.

Jimmy Gibson (Born: Belfast, 4 September 1940. Died: Racine, Wisconsin, USA, 19 August 2017.) Centre-forward Jimmy Gibson signed for Newcastle in January 1959 but received few opportunities at St James' Park. However, he excelled when dropping into the Southern League with Cambridge United, scoring over 30 goals in each of his first two seasons. He eventually earned a return to the Football League with Luton Town in February 1965, where he mostly featured at wing half. Jimmy later played in the United States with Chicago Mustangs before turning to coaching. He was admitted to the Wisconsin Soccer Association Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jim Gilmour (Born: Irvine, Ayrshire, 31 October 1949. Died: Kilmarnock, 11 September 2017.) Jim Gilmour was a goalkeeper who appeared for Ayr United and St Mirren, making a total of 21 senior appearances between 1969 and 1973. He then began a lengthy career in Scottish Junior football playing for a number of clubs including Cumnock, Auchinleck Talbot, Hurlford United, Kello Rovers, Whitletts Victoria and Annbank United. He went on to manager Kello and Whitletts.

Ray Gough (Born: Belfast, 8 February 1938. Died: Exeter, 11 March 2018.) Ray Gough was a stylish wing-half who won amateur international honours for Northern Ireland while still in his teens and playing for Crusaders. In April 1957 he turned professional with Linfield and went on to become a member of the all-conquering 'seven trophy' team of 1961–62, although he missed the closing stages of the campaign after suffering a broken leg. In October 1963 he signed for Exeter City but was unable to break into the first team, but on moving to Millwall 12 months later he made 17 senior appearances. He later played in the Southern League with Weymouth and Bath City. Ray won two caps for the Irish League representative side.

Wally Gould (Born: Thrybergh, Yorkshire, 25 September 1938. Died: 9 March 2018.) Wally Gould was a pacy winger who could play on either flank. A product of Yorkshire League club Rawmarsh, he signed for Sheffield United in February 1958 and made a bright start to his career at Bramall Lane, scoring within a minute of his debut for the Central League team. However, it was only after moving on to York City in February 1961 that he experienced regular first-team football. He made over a century of appearances for the Minstermen then signed for Brighton & Hove Albion midway through the 1963–64 campaign. He settled in well at the Goldstone Ground and the following season he was a near ever-present in the team that won the Fourth Division title, netting 21 goals. In 1968 he emigrated to South Africa where he played for a number of clubs including Durban United, Hellenic and East London United. In 1969 he was the Cape Football Writers' Association Footballer of the Year.

Bill Graham (Born: Carlisle, 8 May 1929. Died: 3 May 2018.) Bill Graham was a versatile player who joined Carlisle United from Consett in January 1954. A part-time player he stayed six seasons at Brunton Park although he was mainly a reserve, making 35 senior appearances.

Bill Green (Born: Newcastle upon Tyne, 22 December 1950. Died: 21 August 2017.) Bill Green was a tall, lanky centre-half who made his name with Hartlepool United where he was appointed as team captain at the age of 20. He captained Carlisle in 1973–74 when they won promotion to the old First Division and went on to score their first-ever goal in First Division football when he netted at Chelsea on the opening day of the 1974–75 campaign. Although the Cumbrians were relegated that season, he returned to the top flight with West Ham United in 1976–77. Later he enjoyed a four-year spell at Chesterfield where he took on coaching duties and rarely missed a match. He managed Scunthorpe United (February 1991 to January 1993) and Buxton, and at the time of his death he had been chief scout at Southampton for several years.

John Groves (Born: Langwith, Derbyshire, 16 September 1933. Died: 26 June 2017.) John Groves signed professional forms for Luton Town soon after reaching the age of 17, gaining a regular first-team place in the 1957–58 season. A wing-half, he went on to make over 300 appearances for the Hatters, gaining an FA Cup runners-up medal in 1959 as a member of the team defeated by Nottingham Forest in the Wembley final. He concluded his career with a couple of seasons on the South Coast at Bournemouth.

Colin Harper (Born: Ipswich, 25 July 1946. Died: March 2018.) Colin Harper was a left-back who developed through the youth system at Ipswich Town, making his first-team debut at Plymouth in February 1966. He stayed 13 seasons at Portman Road, but it was only in 1971–72 and 1972–73 that he featured regularly in the side. In total he made over 150 appearances during his time with the club, featuring in the side that defeated Norwich City over two legs to win the Texaco Cup in May 1973, while the following season he was a member of the team that knocked Real Madrid out of the UEFA Cup. He subsequently had short spells with Port Vale, where he was briefly acting manager, and as player-manager of Waterford.

Allan Harris (Born: Northamptonshire, 28 December 1942. Died: 23 November 2017.) Defender Allan Harris was a member of the Chelsea team that won the FA Youth Cup in 1959–60 and 1960–61. He contributed to Chelsea's 1962–63 promotion campaign but then lost his place in the side and moved on to Coventry. He was back at Stamford Bridge at the very end of the 1965–66 season, and went on to make an appearance for the Blues alongside his brother Ron in the 1967 FA Cup final when the team lost out to Tottenham Hotspur. After winding down his career with spells at Queens Park Rangers, Plymouth Argyle and Cambridge United, he turned to coaching. He worked as assistant manager to Terry Venables at Crystal Palace, QPR and Barcelona and went on to coach Al-Ahly (Egypt) and the Malaysia national team (2000 to 2004).

Alan Haspell (Born: Northwich, 23 January 1943. Died: Winsford, 16 February 2018.) Alan Haspell spent five years on the books of Burnley without breaking into the first team before joining Doncaster Rovers for the 1963–64 season. A wing-half or inside-forward, he made two senior appearances during his time at Belle Vue before returning to Cheshire where he played for both Witton Albion and Northwich Victoria.

Dick Hewitt (Born: South Elmsall, Yorkshire, 25 May 1943. Died: 11 October 2017.) Dick Hewitt was a wing-half or inside-forward who made over 200 appearances in senior football. He signed for Huddersfield Town at the age of 18 but although he failed to break into the first team at Leeds Road he gained plenty of first-team action with both Bradford City and Barnsley. His best season, however, was probably in 1970–71 when he featured regularly in the York City team which won promotion from the old Fourth Division. He moved on to Scarborough with whom he won an FA Trophy winners' medal in 1973.

John Higgins (Born: Kilmarnock, 27 January 1930. Died: 21 June 2017.) John Higgins was a right-back who joined Hibernian in December 1952 but was mostly a back-up player during five seasons at Easter Road. He helped create history as a member of the team that won 4–0 away to Rot-Weiss Essen in September 1955 – the first time a British team had competed in the European Cup. He went on to play for St Mirren and Swindon Town before returning north to play for Newton Stewart in the South of Scotland League.

Bert Hill (Born: West Ham, 8 March 1930. Died: 14 July 2017.) Bert Hill was a wing-half who signed for Colchester United after spending a couple of seasons on the books of Chelsea. He made his senior debut towards the end of his first season at Layer Road and went on to make over 100 appearances for the U's before leaving in the summer of 1957. He later played for Dartford, Hastings United and Canterbury City.

Albert Hobson (Born: Glossop, 7 April 1928. Died: December 2017.) Winger Albert Hobson joined Blackpool as an 18-year-old from a Manchester works' team but although he spent nine years at Bloomfield Road he was a rarely a first-team regular, generally being restricted in his first-team outings by the presence of the legendary Stanley Matthews. In the summer of 1954 he moved to Huddersfield Town in exchange for John McKenna, but he managed just a handful of appearances for the Terriers before concluding his senior career with a season at York.

Jimmy Hodge (Born: Perth, 1928. Died: Perth, 13 December 2017.) Jimmy Hodge was a full-back who made his first-team debut for St Johnstone towards the end of the 1948–49 season, having previously played for local juvenile club St Johnstone YM. He spent the next two seasons at Muirton Park, mostly playing in the reserves in the C Division before joining Brechin City in the summer of 1952. He stayed at Glebe Park for several seasons, making over 200 first-team appearances before switching to Highland League football with Clachnacuddin.

Frank Hodgetts (Born: Dudley, 30 September 1924. Died: March 2018.) Frank Hodgetts was a winger who made his wartime debut for West Bromwich Albion in October 1940 at the age of 16 years and 26 days, making him the club's youngest ever player. He made over 100 appearances for the Baggies during the hostilities and remained a regular in the first two post-war seasons. In August 1949 he moved on to Millwall but in four seasons at the Den he made only 37 first-team appearances. At the time of his death he was West Brom's oldest surviving player.

Ken Hodgkisson (Born: West Bromwich, 12 March 1933. Died: 10 May 2018.) Ken Hodgkisson was a versatile forward who spent six seasons on the books of West Bromwich Albion, but his time with the club was disrupted by National Service and he made just 21 first-team appearances. He moved on to Walsall in January 1956 where he was a key figure in the team that won back-to-back promotions as Division Four champions in 1959–60 and runners-up in Division Three the following season. He remained at Fellows Park until the end of the 1965–66 season when he moved on to Worcester City.

Brian Hodgson (Born: Cleethorpes, 29 January 1936. Died: 24 February 2018.) Centre-forward Brian Hodgson scored on his debut for Grimsby Town against West Ham United in October 1956 but he was mostly a reserve during his time at Blundell Park, making only seven first-team appearances. He signed for Workington in October 1959 where he managed a solitary Football League outing before moving on to play in the Southern League for Boston United in 1960–61. His father, Jack, and uncle, Sam Hodgson, both played senior football for the Mariners.

Eric Hornby (Born: Birkenhead, 31 March 1923. Died: 29 January 2018.) Full-back Eric Hornby developed through Tranmere Rovers' youth set-up during the war, progressing to the first team in 1941–42 and becoming a regular in the line-up after signing professional forms in November 1945. When peacetime football returned he struggled to gain a place in the side, although he featured regularly in 1947–48, before concluding his senior career with a season at Crewe Alexandra.

Rene Houseman (Born: La Banda, Argentina, 19 July 1953. Died: Buenos Aires, 23 March 2018.) Rene Houseman was a skilful winger who won 55 caps for Argentina between 1973 and 1979, scoring 13 goals. He was a member of the squad for the World Cup finals in both 1974 and 1978, on the latter occasion coming off the bench in the closing stages of normal time in the final as Argentina went on to beat Netherlands 3-1 and take the trophy. He played most of his club football in Argentina with CA Huracán.

Cliff Jackson (Born: Swindon, 3 September 1941. Died: May 2018.) Cliff Jackson was an England Schoolboys international who joined the groundstaff at Swindon Town before signing professional forms shortly after his 17th birthday. Initially a winger, he was a regular in the Robins team that won promotion from the Third Division in 1962–63. After a spell at Plymouth Argyle he signed for Crystal Palace in September 1966, linking up with his former manager Bert Head. He was converted to a role as centre-forward and in 1968–69 helped Palace reach the First Division for the first time in their history. He played a season in the top flight before concluding his senior career at Torquay United.

Vic Keeble (Born: Colchester, 25 June 1930. Died: 31 January 2018.) Centre-forward Vic Keeble was at Arsenal as a schoolboy before joining then Southern League club Colchester United in May 1947 and scoring a hat-trick on his debut against Bedford Town. He scored prolifically for the U's in 1951–52, earning a move to Newcastle United where he netted at a rate of a goal every other game. He was the last surviving member of Newcastle United's FA Cup winning teams of the 1950s having played in the 1955 final. He subsequently had a street named after him in Ashington. He retired from football after sustaining a bad back injury playing for West Ham United in October 1959.

Brian Kirkup (Born: Burnham, 16 April 1932. Died: Kempston, Bedfordshire, 22 April 2018.) Brian Kirkup was initially a centre-forward who signed for Reading in August 1955 shortly after completing his National Service. He did well in his first season at Elm Park, netting 16 goals from 38 games, but then found first-team opportunities harder to come by. In the summer of 1958 he moved on to Northampton Town and then Aldershot, where he eventually switched to playing in the half-back line. He made 59 appearances for the Shots and was a member of the team that reached the fourth round of the FA Cup in 1960–61 before going out to Stoke City in a second replay.

John Kurila (Born: Glasgow, 10 April 1941. Died: Northampton, 6 March 2018.) John Kurila was a powerful central defender who made his bow in senior football with Celtic in April 1959. He helped Northampton Town win promotion from the Third Division in 1962–63 and after a brief association with Bristol City returned to the County Ground for a further five-year spell during which time he featured in the top flight. A move to Southend United in July 1968 was successful and he won the Player of the Season award in his first season, before he concluded his career with spells at Colchester United and Lincoln City.

Davie Laing (Born: Strathmiglo, Fife, 20 February 1925. Died: East Kilbride, 15 July 2017.) Wing-half Davie Laing joined Hearts from Bayview Youth Club in 1942 and went on to make over 250 first-team appearances during his time at Tynecastle. He later served Clyde, with whom he won a Scottish Cup winners' medal in 1955, and Hibernian before his daytime job took him south to Kent in the summer of 1957. He enjoyed two seasons as a regular with Gillingham before moving into non-league with Margate, Ramsgate and Canterbury City.

John Lambie (Born: Whitburn, 19 March 1941. Died: 10 April 2018.) John Lambie enjoyed a successful career as a full-back with Falkirk and Whitburn, amassing some 400 appearances in a career that spanned the period from 1960 to 1974. A highlight came when he gained a League Cup runners-up prize as a member of the St Johnstone team defeated by Celtic in the 1969–70 final. He subsequently turned to coaching and then, with some success, management, winning two divisional titles with both Hamilton Academical and Partick Thistle (serving both on more than one occasion) as well as a brief spell in charge of Falkirk.

Tommy Lawrence (Born: Dailly, Ayrshire, 14 May 1940. Died: 10 January 2018.) Tommy Lawrence was big, burly goalkeeper who signed professional forms for Liverpool at the age of 17 and waited five years to break into the first team. However, he quickly established himself as first choice and in a run of six seasons he missed just four league games. During this time the Reds won two Football League titles (1963–64 and 1965–66) as well as the FA Cup in 1964–65. He stayed at Anfield until the end of the 1970–71 season, by which time he had made 390 first-team appearances before concluding his career at Tranmere Rovers. He won three full caps for Scotland.

Malcolm Lawton (Born: Leeds, 7 November 1935. Died: 4 November 2017.) Malcolm Lawton signed professional forms for Leeds United at the age of 17, but was unable to break into the first team at Elland Road. A solid, committed defender, he joined Bradford at the end of the 1956–57 season and went on to make over 100 senior appearances during his stay at Park Avenue before injury ended his career.

Jack Lovering (Born: Nuneaton, 10 December 1922. Died: 21 September 2017.) Jack Lovering was on Coventry City's books as a junior during the war and signed for Birmingham City for the 1945–46 season, turning out for the club's 'A' team in the Birmingham Combination. After being released on a free transfer he returned to Highfield Road, but in two seasons with the club he made just six first-team appearances. He subsequently joined Bedworth Town then went on to play for Atherstone Town and Nuneaton Borough.

Graham Lovett (Born: Sheldon, Birmingham, 5 August 1947. Died: 10 May 2018.) Graham Lovett signed as a professional for West Bromwich Albion in November 1964 and within a few weeks he had made his First Division debut for the Baggies. He mostly featured in a midfield role, but his career was twice interrupted by serious injuries sustained in road traffic accidents, the second of which effectively ended his career. The high point of his career came in May 1968 when he lined up for Albion in the FA Cup final, gaining a winners' medal following their 1-0 win over Everton.

Don McCalman (Born: Greenock, 18 October 1935. Died: 14 September 2017.) Don McCalman was a solid centre-half who developed in Scotland with Hibernian before Bradford Park Avenue signed him up in the summer of 1959. He rarely missed a game during his time with the club. He was an ever-present in the team that won promotion from Division Four in 1960–61 and from March 1960 commenced a run of 156 consecutive appearances, then a club record. After being released he had a short spell with Barrow before a knee injury ended his playing career. He returned to Park Avenue in May 1968 as trainer and was later assistant manager, as well as twice serving as caretaker manager.

Bert McCann (Born: Dundee, 15 October 1932. Died: 12 September 2017.) Bert McCann was a wing-half who signed for Dundee United on amateur forms, featuring in the first team in the 1953–54 season. He went on to study at Edinburgh University and after graduating he was employed as a teacher. He subsequently signed for Queen's Park, winning amateur international honours before joining the professional ranks at Motherwell. Bert made over 300 appearances during his stay at Fir Park, featuring in three Scottish Cup semi-finals and winning five full caps for Scotland.

Bill McCarry (Born: Tillicoultry, Clackmannanshire, 4 December 1938. Died: Alloa, 12 May 2018.) Bill McCarry was a powerful, ball-winning wing-half who signed for Falkirk as a teenager and went on to assist them to promotion back to the top flight in the 1960–61 season. Moving on to St Johnstone he became a regular in the side for most of the 1960s, accumulating over 250 competitive appearances and featuring in the 1969–70 League Cup final defeat by Celtic. He concluded at Stirling Albion where he took his career total of senior games beyond the 450 mark.

Mike McCartney (Born: Musselburgh, 28 September 1954. Died: Carlisle, 2 January 2018.) Mike McCartney was a full-back who was capped by Scotland Schools before signing professional terms for West Bromwich Albion. Although he failed to make the first team at The Hawthorns, he went on to make over 300 senior appearances in two separate spells with Carlisle United, initially as a midfielder and later at left-back. In between he spent a season in the top flight with Southampton and also played for Plymouth Argyle. He left Carlisle at the end of the 1986–87 season and later had a spell as manager of Gretna, then playing in the Northern League.

John McCormick (Born: Glasgow, 18 July 1936. Died: 2 July 2017.) John McCormick was a big, powerful centre-half who made his name with Third Lanark where he gained representative honours when he played for Scotland against the Scottish League in a trial for the international team early in 1962. He later spent two seasons at Aberdeen before moving south with Tom White to sign for Crystal Palace. He was ever-present for Palace when they won promotion to the First Division for the first time in 1968–69 and in 1972 he won the club's first Player of the Year award.

Revd Kenny MacDonald (Born: Skinidin, Isle of Skye, 8 January 1935. Died: Bonar Bridge, Sutherland, 21 January 2018.) Kenny MacDonald was an inside-right who was signed by St Johnstone on amateur forms at the start of the 1957–58 season. He made three League Cup appearances for the Perth side, scoring on his debut against Albion Rovers, and later moved south to work as a customs officer at Heathrow Airport. During this time he played for Hounslow Town and went on to win seven amateur international caps for Scotland. In later life he became a minister of the Free Church of Scotland.

Jimmy MacEwan (Born: Dundee, 22 March 1929. Died: Birmingham, 28 November 2017.) Winger Jimmy MacEwan signed for Arbroath in November 1947, moving on to Raith Rovers in the summer of 1951 for a reported fee of £4,000, a record at the time for the Kirkcaldy club. He went on to make over 200 appearances for Raith, topping the scoring charts on three occasions and earning a trial for the full Scotland team. Jimmy was well into his 30th year when he signed for Aston Villa, but scored on his debut at Brighton & Hove Albion and quickly impressed with some dazzling skills on the flank. He helped Villa win the Second Division title in 1959–60 and the following season played in both legs of the inaugural Football League Cup final. He concluded his career at Walsall before joining the backroom staff at Fellows Park where he remained until 1975.

Tommy McGhee (Born: Manchester, 10 May 1929. Died: May 2018.) Full-back Tommy McGhee came to prominence as an amateur with Wealdstone while serving as a Petty Officer in the Royal Navy. He was capped by England Amateurs and after leaving the Navy signed professional forms for Portsmouth in May 1954. He enjoyed five seasons of top-flight football at Fratton Park, making 136 Football League appearances before winding down his senior career with a season at Reading. He later joined Poole Town where he stayed for several years.

John McGlashan (Born: Dundee, 3 June 1967. Died: 10 January 2018.) John McGlashan was a powerful midfield player who developed with Montrose before moving south to sign for Millwall in the summer of 1990. He never quite established himself with the South London club and in January 1993 he was sold to Peterborough United for what was then a club record fee for Posh. He concluded his career south of the border with Rotherham United before returning to Scotland to play for Dundee, Ross County and Arbroath, where he was a regular in the team that won promotion from the Second Division in 2001–02. He was later manager of Arbroath from September 2005 to October 2009.

Ray McGuigan (Born: Bellshill, 30 October 1969. Died: 2018.) Ray McGuigan was a midfield player who was on the books of Hamilton Academical between October 1987 and the end of the 1991–92 season. He made 64 appearances for the club during his stay, many of which were from the substitutes' bench. He had brief spells with Albion Rovers and Ayr United in 1992–93 before joining Highland League club Fort William.

Joe McGurn (Born: Hamilton, Lanarkshire, 2 January 1965. Died: August 2017.) Joe McGurn developed as a tough-tackling centre-half with East Kilbride Youth Club in the early 1980s before stepping up to senior football with St Johnstone. Here he switched to centre midfield where his hard, uncompromising style was very effective. He later had brief spells with Alloa Athletic and Stenhousemuir but the closing stages of his career were marred by injury.

Frank McKenna (Born: Blaydon, 8 January 1933. Died: Leeds, 12 December 2017.) Frank McKenna was a versatile forward who came to prominence with Bishop Auckland, gaining an FA Amateur Cup winners' medal in 1956 and earning representative honours for England Amateurs and the Great Britain Olympic teams. He turned professional with Leeds United in the summer of 1956, but was mostly a reserve during his time at Elland Road. However, he featured regularly in subsequent spells at Carlisle United and Hartlepools United, finishing with career totals of 84 Football League appearances and 20 goals.

Johnny MacKenzie (Born: Dennistoun, Glasgow, 4 September 1928. Died: Uig, Inner Hebrides, 5 July 2017.) Johnny MacKenzie was a winger who signed for Partick Thistle during the war and stayed for more than a decade, although for the 1947–48 season he turned out for Bournemouth when he was stationed nearby on National Service. He made over 300 appearances for Thistle and played in the League Cup finals for 1953–54, 1956–57 and 1958–59, all of which ended in defeat. He eventually left for two seasons at Dumbarton and then Derry City, with whom he was an Irish Cup winner in 1964. Johnny was a member of the Scotland squad that toured North America in the summer of 1949 and later appeared for his country in the 1954 World Cup finals.

Phil McKnight (Born: Cumlachie, Scotland, 15 June 1924. Died: 25 May 2018.) Phil McKnight was a hard-working right-half who had served in the Royal Navy during the war, linking up with Alloa Athletic when peacetime football returned. His performances during the first half of 1946–47 earned him a move to Chelsea, but in seven years at Stamford Bridge he was mostly a reserve, making just 33 first-team appearances. A move to Leyton Orient in July 1954 was more successful and he was a regular in the line-up, helping the O's win the Division Three South title in 1955–56. He made over 150 appearances during his time with the club and also featured for the London FA XI in the Inter Cities Fairs Cup. At the time of his death he was the oldest surviving former Orient player.

Jimmy McMillan (Born: County Durham, 16 December 1932. Died: Gateshead, 1 November 2017.) Jimmy McMillan was an outside-left who was a mainstay of the Crook Town team in the 1950s and early '60s. He won four FA Amateur Cup winners medals (1954, 1959, 1962 and 1964) and was awarded a solitary cap for England Amateurs against France in April 1959.

Ian McNeill (Born: Baillieston, Lanarkshire, 24 February 1932. Died: October 2017.) Ian McNeill gained representative honours for Scotland Youths and signed for Aberdeen in August 1949. He impressed by scoring seven goals for the 'A' team in a 15-0 win over East Fife. A but his chances of first-team football at Pittodrie were restricted by National Service. He subsequently followed manager David Halliday to Leicester City where his 18 goals contributed to the Foxes' 1956–57 Division Two title success. In later spells at Brighton & Hove Albion and Southend United, he adopted a deeper role before taking up an appointment as player-coach with Dover Athletic. He went on to enjoy success as a manager, leading Ross County to the Highland League title in 1966–67 and taking Wigan Athletic into the Football League in 1978. He was later an assistant manager at Chelsea (1981–1985) and manager of Shrewsbury Town (1987–1990), then worked with Millwall before taking on various scouting roles.

Ken McPherson (Born: Hartlepool, 25 March 1927. Died: January 2018.) Ken McPherson was only a reserve at Hartlepools but joined Notts County in August 1950 where he understudied England international Tommy Lawton at centre-forward. A spell with Middlesbrough followed but it was not until he signed for Coventry City midway through the 1955–56 season that he won a regular first-team place. His best seasons were probably with Newport County towards the end of his career, where he finished as top scorer in two out of his three seasons at Somerton Park. He concluded his career with Swindon Town where he switched to playing at centre-half.

Brian Macready (Born: Leicester, 25 March 1942. Died: 2017.) Brian Macready signed amateur forms for West Bromwich Albion at the age of 17, graduating to the professional ranks in February 1960. He was mostly a reserve at The Hawthorns, generally featuring on the right flank. On moving to Mansfield Town in the summer of 1964 he switched to inside forward and in his first season he was a regular in the line-up as the Stags narrowly missed out on promotion from the old Third Division. In October 1965 he became the first substitute to be used by Mansfield, coming on in the away game at Peterborough United. Injury led to his departure from Field Mill although he later played in the Southern League with Worcester City and Banbury United.

Ron Mailer (Born: Auchterarder, 18 May 1932. Died: Auchterarder, 28 March 2018.) Ron Mailer was a wing-half who joined Dunfermline Athletic from Auchterarder Primrose in March 1951 and went on to stay 13 years, making over 300 senior appearances. During his National Service he also played a number of games for Darlington when he was stationed nearby at Catterick. He captained the Pars team that won the Scottish Cup in 1961 and made his final appearance for the club in April 1964.

George Mansell (Born: Doncaster, 19 January 1943. Died: 4 October 2017.) George Mansell made a single first-team appearance for Doncaster Rovers, featuring at centre-forward in a 5-1 defeat at Darlington in November 1962. He later played for Hinckley Athletic, Retford Town and Matlock Town.

George Meek (Born: Glasgow, 15 February 1934. Died: March 2018.) George Meek was a winger who was introduced to senior football by Hamilton Academical in the 1951-52 season. The following summer he was sold to Leeds United, beginning a lengthy association with the Elland Road club which saw him make exactly 199 first-team appearances. During this time he also had a brief spell at Walsall while on National Service. He spent the 1960–61 season at Leicester City then became Walsall's record signing in July 1961 and added a further century of appearances during his second spell at Fellows Park. He retired from senior football in the summer of 1965.

Andrew 'Minty' Miller (Born: Troon, 1 December 1932. Died: 18 April 2018.) Andrew 'Minty' Millar was capped for Scotland Juniors against Ireland in February 1955 and went on to sign for Rangers although he never progressed further than the 'A' team playing in Division C. In the 1954–55 season he was on the books of Alloa Athletic for whom he made a number of senior appearances before leaving senior football. 'Minty' was also an outstanding golfer, winning the Scottish Boys' Championship in 1950 and later representing Scotland in the Home International Championships in 1954 and 1955. On five occasions he took part in the British Amateur Championship, reaching the quarter-final in 1953.

Liam Miller (Born: Cork, 13 February 1981. Died: Curraheen, Co. Cork, 9 February 2018.) Liam Miller was a tenacious midfield player who developed in the youth set-up at Celtic, going on to win a regular place in the first-team squad in the 2003–04 campaign. The following season he moved to Manchester United, but in two seasons at Old Trafford he was mostly a fringe player and most of his senior experience came in a loan spell with Leeds United. He moved on to Sunderland in August 2006, assisting in their Championship promotion campaign in his first season with the club. There followed a brief association with Queens Park Rangers and two seasons at Hibernian before he moved to Australia where he played for Perth Glory, Brisbane Roar and Melbourne City. There were further spells with Cork Celtic and in the USA with Wilmington Hammerheads before illness led to his retirement. Liam won 21 full caps for the Republic of Ireland. His early death was a result of pancreatic cancer.

Jimmy Milner (Born: Newcastle upon Tyne, 3 February 1933. Died: 2017.) Jimmy Milner signed for Burnley in December 1952 and stayed five years at Turf Moor, but was mostly a reserve, managing a solitary first-team appearance. However, he featured regularly in four seasons at Darlington where he was a member of the team that defeated Chelsea 4-1 in an FA Cup fourth round replay in front of a 15,000 gate at Feethams in January 1958. He played for Accrington Stanley in their final season of existence before winding down his senior career with Tranmere.

John Molyneux (Born: Warrington, 3 February 1931. Died: 7 March 2018.) John Molyneux was capped for England Youths and by the age of 18 he was a regular in the Chester line-up. Apart from a spell of National Service, he retained his place until Liverpool paid a four-figure fee for his services in the summer of 1955. At Anfield he built a reputation as a solid but unspectacular right-back and went on to make over 200 first-team appearances before losing his place in the 1961–62 promotion season. He subsequently returned to Chester where he featured regularly for the next 18 months and when he left senior football at the end of the 1964–65 season he had played more than 500 senior games for his two clubs.

Jackie Mooney (Born: Dublin, 1938. Died: Dublin, 30 December 2017.) Inside-forward Jackie Mooney spent three seasons on the books of Manchester United without breaking into the first team, before returning to Ireland in 1958. After brief spells with Bangor City and Cork Hibs he signed for Shamrock Rovers with whom he was a member of the team that achieved a double of the League of Ireland and the FAI Cup in 1963–64. The following season he won two full caps for the Republic of Ireland. Later he had spells with Athlone Town and Bohemians and he also won representative honours for the League of Ireland XI.

Tony Moore (Born: Scarborough, 4 September 1947. Died: 7 July 2017.) Winger Tony Moore progressed from an apprenticeship with Chesterfield to the professional ranks at the age of 17 and made his senior debut shortly afterwards. He went on to make over 150 appearances for the Spireites, assisting them to the Fourth Division title in 1969–70.

Andrew Morgan (Born: Freuchie, Fife, 18 April 1921. Died: 14 August 2017.) Andrew Morgan was an inside-forward who made a single appearance for Brechin City as a trialist towards the end of the 1938–39 season and later featured for Dundee and Raith Rovers as a guest player during the war during which time he spent 18 months as a prisoner of war after his plane was shot down over France. Post-war he had brief associations with Chelsea and Fulham without adding to his experience of senior football.

John Muir (Born: 4 September 1947. Died: 28 February 2018.) John Muir developed a reputation as a goalscoring forward with Alloa Athletic before signing for St Johnstone in November 1969. His early time at Murrton was affected by injuries and it was not until the 1972–73 campaign that he was able to establish himself in the side. He eventually returned to Alloa where he was a member of the team that won promotion in 1976–77 (the club's first success for almost 40 years). In total he netted over 100 senior goals at a rate of around one every three games.

Bob Murray (Born: Kennay, Aberdeenshire, 24 April 1932. Died: September 2017.) Bob Murray was a tall, intelligent wing-half who came to prominence with Scottish Junior outfit Inverurie Loco. In November 1951 he signed for Stockport County and he went on to make close on 500 senior appearances during a 12-year stay at Edgeley Park, including a run of 226 consecutive League and Cup appearances between August 1954 and February 1959. On leaving Stockport he had spells with Bangor City and Ashton United.

Terry Murray (Born: Dublin, 22 May 1928. Died: Bedford, 18 October 2017.) Terry Murray started out as a winger and was capped for the Republic of Ireland at Junior international level. He signed for Dundalk in the summer of 1948 where he gained further representative honours, being capped by his country and also appearing for the League of Ireland representative XI. His form earned him a transfer to Hull City shortly after the start of the 1951–52 season and he was converted to inside-forward by the Tigers. However, he never really established himself at Boothferry Park or during a brief spell with Bournemouth before moving into non-league football with King's Lynn, Bedford Town and Rushden Town (where he was player-manager).

Les Mutrie (Born: Newcastle upon Tyne, 1 April 1952. Died: 3 October 2017.) Les Mutrie was a successful non-league striker in Northern League football for Ashington and from there went on to Gateshead United. When that club folded he joined the senior ranks at Carlisle United, making his Football League debut at the age of 28. He then returned to non-league football with Blyth Spartans and after some fine performances in a series of FA Cup ties against Hull City the Tigers were persuaded to purchase him for what was then a record fee for a non-league player in December 1980. In his first full season at Boothferry Park he set a new club record by scoring in nine consecutive Football League games and finished the campaign as leading scorer with 28 goals. Les later played for Colchester United and Hartlepool United before retiring through injury.

Tommy Neilson (Born: Gorebridge, Midlothian, 15 March 1935. Died: Johannesburg, South Africa, 10 February 2018.) Wing-half Tommy Neilson began his career with Heart of Midlothian but failed to make the first team at Tynecastle and in May 1957 he signed for East Fife. He went on to enjoy the best period of his career with Dundee United, signing in October 1959 and remaining for nearly a decade. He made over 300 appearances during his time with the Tifers and captained the team that won promotion to the top flight in 1959–60. He later had a season with Cowdenbeath prior to emigrating to South Africa in 1969.

Peter Newbery (Born: Derby, 4 March 1938. Died: February 2018.) Peter Newbery was a versatile forward who joined Derby County on amateur forms on leaving school, progressing to a professional contract at the age of 17. He mostly featured for the Central League team during his time at the Baseball Ground, making five first team appearances and scoring two goals. He left the club at the end of the 1960–61 season and subsequently played non-league football for Burton Albion, Lockheed Leamington and Long Eaton United.

Derek Nippard (Born: Poole, Dorset, 1930. Died: Bournemouth, 14 July 2017.) Derek Nippard progressed via the Football Combination to the Football League linesman's list in 1963 and three years later was promoted to the referees' list where he remained until the age of 47. A highlight of his career was taking charge of the 1978 FA Cup final between Ipswich Town and Arsenal.

Cliff Nugent (Born: Islington, 3 March 1929. Died: Weymouth, 17 February 2018.) Cliff Nugent was a winger who featured for Headington United in their early days in the Southern League before joining Cardiff City in January 1951. It took him some time to win a regular place in the Bluebirds' line-up but he went on to make more than 100 appearances for them, mostly in the top flight. In November 1958 he was transferred to Mansfield Town where he played for the next two seasons before dropping down to Southern League football with Weymouth.

John Ogston (Born: Aberdeen, 15 January 1939. Died: Aberdeen, 17 August 2017.) John Ogston was a goalkeeper who signed for Aberdeen after being a member of the Banks O'Dee team which won the Scottish Junior Cup in 1957. He was an ever-present for the Dons between August 1961 and August 1965 – a run of 164 consecutive games. He later spent three seasons at Liverpool for whom he made a single first-team appearance and was then at Doncaster Rovers where he was a regular in the side that won the Fourth Division title in 1968–69. He subsequently returned north and continued to play Highland League football until 1974.

Terry Oldfield (Born: Bristol, 1 April 1939. Died: 28 March 2018.) Terry Oldfield was a tall and powerful wing-half who initially signed for Bristol Rovers as an amateur, switching to professional status in 1960. He spent three seasons as a regular in the Pirates' line-up, making over 150 appearances during his stay. He moved on to Wrexham for the 1966–67 season where he continued to make a useful contribution before suffering an injury playing against Cardiff City in the Welsh Cup final which effectively ended his career. He had a brief spell as trainer for Bradford Park Avenue before leaving the game. He was also a talented cricketer who had played for Somerset Second XI.

Bert Ormond (Born: Falkirk, 12 January 1931. Died: Auckland, New Zealand, 15 November 2017.) Inside-forward Bert Ormond stepped up to the seniors in the summer of 1954 and went on to enjoy a healthy career in the Scottish League, making over 100 senior appearances with Falkirk, Airdrieonians and Dumbarton. In 1961 he emigrated to New Zealand where he continued to play and he captained the New Zealand national team that embarked on a world tour in 1964. Bert was a member of a well-known footballing family. He was the brother of Willie (Hiberman, Falkirk, Scotland and Scottish League XI) and Gibby (Airdrie, Dundee United, Cowdenbeath, Alloa and Scottish League XI). His sons Ian and Duncan represented New Zealand, while his grand-daughter Vicki played for New Zealand women.

Stéphane Paille (Born: Scionzier, France, 27 June 1965. Died: Lyon, France, 27 June 2017.) Stéphane Paille enjoyed the best seasons of his career with Sochaux, notably in 1987–88 when he was a member of the team that won promotion from Division Two and lost out on penalties in the final of the Coupe de France. In 1988 he was a member of the France team that won the UEFA U21 title and later was voted as France Football's Player of the Year. His career subsequently took him across France and also to Portugal and Switzerland but he was unable to achieve the same level of success. A failed drugs test led to a ban from the game before he signed for Heart of Midlothian in the 1996–97 season, gaining a League Cup runners-up medal during his stay. He was released having failed another drugs test in May 1997. He won six full caps for France between 1986 and 1989.

Karoly Palotai (Born: Bekescsaba, Hungary, 11 September 1935. Died: Gyor, Hungary, 3 February 2018.) Karoly Palotai was a member of the Hungary team which won the Gold Medal in the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo. He played in all four matches leading up to the final but was an unused substitute in the final. He played his club football for Raba ETO Gyor. He later became a well-known international referee, officiating at the 1974, 1978 and 1982 World Cup finals and taking charge of two European Cup finals (1976 and 1981).

Arthur Peel (Born: Manchester, 1937. Died: July 2017.) Arthur Peel was an outside right who won a single England amateur international cap in April 1958 while a student at Sheffield University. He later played for Whitley Bay, Wealdstone and Hendon before becoming player-coach of Wembley.

Willie Penman (Born: Wemyss, Fife, 7 August 1939. Died: December 2017.) Willie Penman was a member of the St Andrews United team that won the Scottish Junior Cup in 1960, signing for Rangers shortly afterwards. He had few first team opportunities at Ibrox and moved on to Newcastle United where he proved to be an effective member of the team that won the Second Division title in 1962–63. He made less of an impact in the top flight and was sold to Swindon Town where he featured from the bench in the 1969 Football League Cup final when the Robins defeated Arsenal in extra time to win the trophy. He went on to conclude his career with spells at Walsall, Dundalk and Seattle Sounders before leaving the game.

Pavel Pergl (Born: Prague, Czechoslovakia, 14 November 1977. Died: Magdeburg, Germany, 1 May 2018.) Pavel Pergl was a central defender who played most of his football in the Czech Republic, notably with Sparta Prague, before spending the second half of the 2006–07 season with Preston North End. He subsequently went on to play in Cyprus for AEK Larnaca and then moved around a string of clubs in Germany, Israel and Switzerland.

John Petrie (Born: July 1927. Died: Dalbeattie, 29 June 2017.) Goalkeeper John Petrie first came to notice with his performances for Glasgow's renowned Queen's Park School and he was on the point of signing for Wolves before joining Third Lanark in June 1944. He made 30 appearances for Thirds in 1945–46, the final season of wartime football, then continued to feature in the early post-war seasons before suffering a broken leg in November 1949. Although he recovered, he spent much of the rest of his playing career with trial periods and short-term contracts.

Ted Phillips (Born: Cromford, Suffolk, 21 August 1933. Died: Ipswich, January 2018.) Ted Phillips signed professional forms for Ipswich Town in December 1953 after completing his National Service and made his first team debut shortly afterwards. It was not until the 1956–57 season that he fully established himself in the side and that season he set a new club record of 41 League goals as the team won the Division Three South title. He formed a prolific goalscoring partnership with fellow striker Ray Crawford, the two leading Ipswich to success in the Second Division in 1960–61 and the Football League title 12 months later, when they netted some 61 League goals between them. Ted scored a grand total of 179 goals from 293 senior appearances for Town. He later played for Leyton Orient, Luton Town and Colchester United before a spell in Malta as player-manager of Floriana.

Steve Piper (Born: Brighton, 2 November 1953. Died: December 2017.) Steve Piper was a defender who was just 19 years old when he made his first-team debut for Brighton & Hove Albion. He went on to establish himself in the side in the mid-1970s and was an ever-present in the team that won promotion from the old Third Division in 1976–77 when he featured as a midfield enforcer. In February 1978 he moved on to Portsmouth, but he was never a regular in the Pompey line-up and left at the end of the following season.

Johnny Powell (Born: York, 10 March 1936. Died: 25 December 2017.) Johnny Powell was a creative inside-forward or wing-half who signed for York City in September 1956 after developing in local junior football. He spent four seasons on the books at Bootham Crescent but was mostly a back-up player, making a total of 28 senior appearances. He went on to play for Scarborough and Goole Town.

Keith Pring (Born: Newport, 11 March 1943. Died: Southport, 25 January 2018.) Keith Pring was a pacy winger who developed with Newport County before being sold to Rotherham United in October 1964. He enjoyed the best seasons of his career at Millmoor, then playing in the old Division Two, and won his three full caps for Wales during his stay. He moved on following a change in management and later played for Notts County and Southport before a broken leg ended his soccer career, although he later played rugby for Southport RUFC, for whom he established a record points total in 1973–74.

Bob Raine (Born: Chesterfield, 17 November 1927. Died: Dover, 31 January 2018.) Bob Raine was a prolific goalscorer in junior football for Newbould Youth Club, earning him a contract with Chesterfield. However, the switch to Second Division football proved a step too far and he dropped down a few levels to further his career with Kidderminster Harriers. In February 1951 he returned to senior football with Aldershot, with whom he enjoyed a useful career over the next couple of seasons, finishing 1951–52 as the Shots' leading scorer and in total netting 22 goals from 50 senior appearances.

Cyrille Regis, MBE (Born: Mariapousoula, French Guinea, 9 February 1958. Died: 14 January 2018.) Cyrille Regis was a powerful and athletic striker who burst on the scene at West Bromwich Albion by scoring two on his debut in a League Cup game against Rotherham United in August 1977. He quickly became a fixture in the side, earning a reputation for scoring spectacular goals. In seven years at The Hawthorns he netted 111 goals and established himself as one of the club's greatest strikers. In October 1984 he moved on to Coventry City where he was less prolific but nevertheless enjoyed one of the high points of his career as a member of the team that defeated Tottenham Hotspur to win the FA Cup in 1987. In the summer of 1991 he linked up again with his former manager Ron Atkinson at Aston Villa and continued playing until his late 30s, turning out for Wolverhampton Wanderers, Wycombe Wanderers and Chester City. One of the first iconic black players in the domestic game, he won five full caps for England and was PFA Young Player of the Year in 1978–79.

Andy Reid (Born: Urmston, Lancashire, 4 July 1962. Died: October 2017.) Andy Reid was a committed and uncompromising central defender who was on Everton's books as a youngster before dropping into non-league football. A prominent figure with Altrincham after signing in the summer of 1989, he later moved back into senior football for an 18-month spell with Bury. He subsequently returned to Altrincham with whom he was capped for the England Semi Professional team.

Jimmy Reid (Born: Dundee, 14 December 1935. Died: Dundee, 9 October 2017.) Jimmy Reid was a skilful inside-forward who progressed from Dundee St Joseph's to sign for Dundee United in March 1955. His goalscoring exploits at Tannadice earned him a move south to Bury and then Stockport County but he never really established himself in England. Jimmy later returned to Scotland to conclude his career with spells at East Fife, Arbroath and Brechin City.

Felix Reilly (Born: Wallyford, East Lothian, 12 September 1933. Died: Comrie, Perthshire, 2 January 2018.) Felix Reilly was signed as a winger by Dunfermline in February 1954 but was quickly converted to inside-forward. He assisted the Pars to promotion from the Second Division in 1954–55 and in February 1957 he was capped for Scotland U23s against England. Spells with Dundee, East Fife and Portsmouth followed before he moved south in March 1960 to sign for Bradford Park Avenue. Bradford won promotion from the Fourth Division in 1960–61 but he left soon afterwards to wind down his senior career with a spell at Crewe Alexandra. He was the younger brother of Terry Reilly (Bradford PA and Dunfermline)

Alex Rennie (Born: Falkirk, 27 September 1948. Died: Denny, Falkirk, 4 March 2018.) Alex Rennie was a defender who joined the senior ranks with Rangers as a 17-year-old. His playing career was slow to develop and he was unable to progress beyond the reserves at Ibrox, while a move to Stirling Albion was brief and unsuccessful, although he did make his debut in senior football. However, after signing for St Johnstone in October 1967 he became a regular first-team player, making over 200 appearances for the Perth club. He was released at the end of the 1974–75 season and signed for Dundee United, where he stayed for three years before an eye injury ended his career. He subsequently turned to coaching and then management with St Johnstone (April 1980 to May 1985) and Stenhousemuir (October 1987 to April 1989). In 1982–83 he won the First Division title (second tier) with St Johnstone.

Brian Riley (Born: Bolton, 14 September 1937. Died: Great Lever, Lancashire, 19 October 2017.) Brian Riley spent almost five years as a professional with Bolton Wanderers in the late 1950s but was restricted to just eight first-team appearances on the left wing. He moved on to non-league football, firstly with Weymouth and then with Buxton where his career was ended by an injury.

Alan Rodgerson (Born: Easington, 19 March 1939. Died: Hereford, 17 May 2018.) Alan Rodgerson was an inside-forward who spent five seasons on the books of Middlesbrough after signing as a professional in May 1956, and scored twice on his first-team debut at Rotherham. However, almost all of his 14 senior appearances came in the 1958–59 season and he subsequently played for several years in the Southern League with Hereford United, Gloucester City and Cheltenham Town. His son Ian played senior football for Hereford United, Cardiff City, Birmingham City and Sunderland.

Andy Rowland (Born: Taunton, 1 October 1965. Died: 20 July 2017.) Andy Rowland gained representative honours for England Schools U18s and after completing his education he played for Exmouth Town before joining Southampton in November 1989. He featured regularly for the Saints' reserves in the Football Combination before signing for Torquay United towards the end of the 1990–91 season and went on to feature as a substitute in the Gulls' Division Four play-off success against Blackpool in May 1991. He stayed another season at Plainmoor and soon after leaving moved to live in the Netherlands. His early death was due to Motor Neurone Disease.

Duncan Russell (Born: London, 12 March 1958. Died: Derby, 18 August 2017.) Duncan Russell was a coach at a number of clubs including Derby County, Walsall, Wolverhampton Wanderers, MK Dons and Blackburn Rovers before being appointed assistant manager to David Holdsworth at Mansfield Town in May 2010. In November 2010 he became caretaker manager following the departure of Holdsworth and the following month was appointed manager until the end of the season. His final match was the FA Trophy final at Wembley when the Stags were defeated by Darlington and he left Field Mill in May 2011. He was later appointed manager of Hucknall Town but left the club after just a few weeks.

Eddie Russell (Born: Cranwell, Lincolnshire, 15 July 1928. Died: Lanivet, Cornwall, 8 November 2017.) Eddie Russell was a tall, constructive wing-half who made his first-team debut for Wolverhampton Wanderers at the age of 20 but although he toured North America with an FA representative squad in the summer of 1950 he struggled to establish himself at Molineux. Towards the end of 1951 he was sold to Middlesbrough where he was appointed as captain of the side. However, from the autumn of 1953 he commenced a training course to qualify as a PE teacher at Loughborough College and this led to a return to the Midlands as he signed for Leicester City. In his first season at Filbert Street he helped the Foxes win the Division Two title, staying with the club for five seasons before ending his career with Notts County.

Fred Ryecraft (Born: Southall, 29 August 1939. Died: 26 September 2017.) Goalkeeper Fred Ryecraft played in a pre-season public practice match for Brentford in August 1958, but it was a further 12 months before he signed for the Bees. He was mostly a reserve during his time at Griffin Park, making a total of 38 first-team appearances, all in the 1962–63 and 1963–64 seasons. In the summer of 1962 he had toured South East Asia with a British Army representative side.

Stefano Salvatori (Born: Rome, 29 December 1967. Died: Australia, 31 October 2017.) Stefano Salvatori was a powerful midfield player who developed with AC Milan. However, he was unable to establish himself in the team and after a series of loan spells moved on to Fiorentina in December 1990 and then went on to feature for SPAL and Atalanta. Shortly after the start of the 1996–97 season he signed for Heart of Midlothian where he became an influential figure, assisting them to a 2-1 victory over Rangers in the Scottish Cup final of 1998, the club's first success in the competition since 1956. Stefano wound down his playing career in the lower divisions in Italy, then switched to coaching firstly in Italy and then in Australia.

Jlloyd Samuel (Born: San Fernando, Trinidad & Tobago, 29 March 1981. Died: High Legh, Cheshire, 15 May 2018.) Jlloyd Samuel was a powerful and athletic defender who was best employed at left-back or as a left-wing-back. A product of the East London junior club Senrab, he was attached to Charlton Athletic academy when Aston Villa signed him as a 17-year-old. Within a year he had made his Premier League debut and he went on to play over 150 times for Villa. In the summer of 2007 he moved on to Bolton Wanderers but after a couple of seasons of first-team football he fell out of favour. He subsequently played in Iran with Esteghlal and Paykan before retiring from senior football. Capped at several levels up to U21s by England, he also made two appearances for Trinidad & Tobago. His tragically early death was the result of a road traffic accident.

Derek Saunders (Born: Ware, 6 January 1928. Died: March 2018.) Wing-half Derek Saunders made his name in amateur football, captaining the Walthamstow Avenue team that won the FA Amateur Cup in 1952 and gaining representative honours for England Amateurs and the Great Britain Olympic side. In the summer of 1953 he signed professional forms for Chelsea and was soon a fixture in the line-up. He was an ever-present in 1954–55 when the Blues won the Football League title for the first time and in total made over 200 senior appearances for the club. He also featured for the London FA team in the Inter Cities Fairs Cup.

Hans Schäfer (Born: Cologne, West Germany, 19 October 1927. Died: Cologne, Germany, 7 November 2017.) Hans Schäfer was an outside-left who was one of only two surviving members of the West Germany team that defeated Hungary to win the 1954 World Cup. He went on to feature in both the 1958 and 1962 World Cup finals and captained his country on a number of occasions. He spent his senior career with his home town club 1. FC Koln with whom he won the German championship in 1962 and 1964 and was German Footballer of the Year in 1963.

Dick Scott (Born: Thetford, 26 October 1941. Died: 21 February 2018.) Dick Scott was a wing-half and occasional centre-forward who was still a teenager when he made his debut for Norwich City in April 1961. He went on to appear for the Canaries in the 1961–62 Football League Cup final when they defeated Rochdale over two legs to win the trophy but then lost his place in the side. He was a regular for Cardiff City in 1963–64 and for Scunthorpe the following season before concluding his senior career with Lincoln City.

Joe Scott (Born: Fatfield, County Durham, 9 January 1930. Died: 30 January 2018.) As a youngster Joe Scott was on the books of Newcastle United without making the first team. He dropped into non-league football later, joining Luton Town from Spennymoor United in February 1952. Although he made little impact at Kenilworth Road, he enjoyed three good seasons with Middlesbrough, for whom he scored 30 goals in exactly 99 first team appearances. He went on to conclude his career at senior football with spells at Hartlepools United and York City, taking his tally of senior games to just short of 200.

Nigel Sims (Born: Coton-in-the-Elms, Derbyshire, 9 August 1931. Died: Gorseinon, Swansea, 6 January 2018.) Goalkeeper Nigel Sims was an amateur on the books of Wolverhampton Wanderers progressing to a professional contract on reaching the age of 17. He spent eight seasons at Wolves as understudy to Bert Williams before signing for local rivals Aston Villa. In his first full season at Villa Park he gained an FA Cup winners' medal while in 1960–61 he was a near ever-present in the team that won the Second Division title. He went on to make over 300 appearances and in 1958 was the first winner of the club's player of the season award (the Terrace Trophy) before winding down his career with spells at Toronto City and Peterborough United. He made two appearances for the Football League representative XI.

Raymond Smith (Born: Tyewood, County Durham, 4 April 1929. Died: 21 June 2017.) Wing-half Ray Smith had a seven-year spell with Luton Town in the 1950s but was mostly a reserve during his time at Kenilworth Road. After dropping down a couple of divisions to play for Southend United he featured regularly in the 1957–58 season but thereafter was mostly a back-up player. He concluded his career in the Southern League with Hastings United.

Zdeněk Šreiner (Born: Ostrava, 2 June 1954. Died: 28 November 2017.) Zdenek Streiner was a midfielder who spent over a decade with Banik Ostrava, winning the Czechoslovakia League title in 1979–80 and 1980–81. He was a member of the Czechoslovakia squad that won the Gold Medal in the 1980 Moscow Olympic Games. He played in both the quarter-finals and semi-finals (when he scored) but was an unused substitute in the final against East Germany. He later concluded his career with spells at AS Beauvais (France) and VSE St Polten (Austria).

Arthur Stewart (Born: Ballymena, 15 January 1942. Died: 3 March 2018.) Arthur Stewart developed as a wing-half in the Irish League with Ballymena United and Glentoran with whom he won the Irish League title twice and the Irish Cup on one occasion. In December 1967 he joined Brian Clough's Derby County and was a regular in his first season, but thereafter mostly a reserve. He returned to Ballymena in the summer of 1970 and went on to spend five years as the club's player-manager. Arthur won seven full caps for Northern Ireland and also appeared at amateur and youth internationals as well as featuring for the Irish League representative side. He was Ulster Footballer of the Year in 1974.

Ian Stewart (Died: Forfar, 27 July 2017.) Ian Stewart was a wing-half who joined Forfar Athletic from local Junior outfit Forfar Celtic in June 1953 and went on to become a regular in the line-up for a run of four seasons. In total he made over 150 competitive appearances for the Station Park club before concluding his career with a season at Brechin City.

Jimmy Stormont (Born: 2 March 1934. Died: Newcastle, December 2017.) Jimmy Stormont was a versatile attacking player who played in the Juniors with Brechin Victoria and Arbroath Vics before stepping up to senior football in December 1955 when he signed for Arbroath. He made just a handful of first team appearances during his brief stay with the Red Lichties but went on to enjoy three seasons of regular first-team football with Brechin City, making just short of 100 senior appearances and featuring at right-half in the team that lost to Rangers in the League Cup semi-final in September 1957.

Archie Styles (Born: Smethwick, 29 October 1939. Died: 9 January 2018.) Wing-half Archie Styles broke into the West Bromwich Albion line-up at the age of 18 but this proved to be his only senior appearance for the Baggies. In March 1960 he moved on to Wrexham, where gained further experience of senior football before switching to non-league football with Hereford United for the 1961–62 season. He was later player-coach of Kidderminster Harriers and Stourbridge for several seasons.

Rod Taylor (Born: Corfe Castle, 9 September 1943. Died: Poole, 16 April 2018.) Rod Taylor was a combative wing-half who signed professional forms for Portsmouth at the age of 17, but it was not until he moved to Gillingham in July 1963 that he gained experience of first-team football. He was only a fringe player with the Gills but fared much better after a switch to Bournemouth where he featured regularly in the 1966–67 season before leaving senior football.

Jackie Teasdale (Born: Rossington, 15 March 1929. Died: 2018.) Jackie Teasdale was a hard-tackling wing-half who signed for Doncaster Rovers in October 1949 but it was not until the 1953–54 season that he won a regular place in the line-up. He made over 100 senior appearances during his time with Rovers and toured South Africa with an FA XI in the summer of 1956. However, he suffered a serious knee injury during the tour and this effectively ended his playing career.

Dionatan Teixeira (Born: Londrina, Brazil, 24 July 1992. Died: Londrina, Brazil, 5 November 2017.) Dionatan Teixeira was a central defender who developed in Europe with Slovakian clubs MFK Kosice and Dukla Banska Bystrica. In the summer of 2014 he signed for Stoke City, but managed just a couple of appearances from the bench for the Premier League club although he played a number of games on loan for Fleetwood Town in League One during the 2015–16 campaign. He was released by Stoke during the January 2017 transfer window and signed for Moldovan club FC Sheriff Tiraspol, assisting them to the national league title for 2016–17. His early death was a result of suffering a heart attack.

Ken Turner (Born: Great Houghton, Yorkshire, 22 April 1941. Died: Barnsley, 17 August 2017.) Ken Turner was a left-back who signed for Huddersfield Town in October 1958. He received few opportunities at Leeds Road, but featured regularly for both Shrewsbury Town and York City, taking his total of Football League appearances beyond the 150-mark. He subsequently signed for League of Ireland club Sligo Rovers where he became player-manager in 1969 and led the team to the 1970 FAI Cup final.

Bob Turpie (Born: Hampstead, 13 November 1949. Died: Nuneaton, 10 April 2018.) Bob Turpie was an apprentice with Queens Park Rangers, progressing to a full contract at the age of 18. He made two senior appearances during his time at Loftus Road, then spent a couple of seasons with Peterborough United, featuring fairly regularly during 1970–71. He subsequently signed for Nuneaton Borough where he became something of a legendary striker before eventually ending his career with AP Leamington.

Wayne Tutty (Born: Oxford, 18 June 1963. Died: Oxfordshire, 1 October 2017.) Wayne Tutty joined Oxford United a youngster but was released at the end of his apprenticeship and signed for Banbury United. Later he joined Reading, initially on a non-contract basis, where he made 17 senior appearances, mostly in midfield.

Ian Twitchin (Born: Teignmouth, 22 January 1952. Died: 3 December 2017.) Ian Twitchin completed an apprenticeship with Torquay United and signed professional forms for them at the age of 18. The Gulls proved to be his only senior club and he went on to become one of only five players to make more than 400 appearances for them in a career that spanned more than a decade. He made his debut on the right wing towards the end of the 1969–70 season, but eventually settled into the right-back position and was a regular in the line-up for most of the 1970s.

Jim Upton (Born: Coatbridge, 3 June 1940. Died: Cardiff, 24 November 2017.) Jim Upton was a full-back who signed for Celtic from Junior club St Roch in November 1959. He was only a reserve during two seasons at Parkhead and then spent the 1961–62 season with Southern League club Tonbridge. After a spell back in Scotland he signed for Cardiff City and made seven first-team appearances in the first half of 1963–64 before returning to non-league football once more with Bath City.

Arnold Walker (Born: Haltwhistle, Northumberland, 23 December 1932. Died: Grimoldby, Lincolnshire, 25 December 2017.) Wing-half Arnold Walker joined Grimsby Town from Scunthorpe junior football in May 1950 and was on the Mariners' books for eight seasons. He played in a total of 71 senior games but it was only in 1953–54 that he was a regular in the side. He concluded his career with a season at Walsall before signing for Midland League club Gainsborough Trinity.

Ron Walker (Born: Sheffield, 4 February 1932. Died: 29 October 2017.) Ron Walker was on Sunderland's books as an amateur before signing for Doncaster Rovers in the summer of 1950. Featuring mostly on the left wing or at inside-left, he went on to make over 280 appearances for Rovers and rarely missed a match between August 1957 and December 1960. He subsequently moved to Southern League Bath City where he featured regularly in the first half of the 1960s.

Joe Walters (Born: 10 February 1935. Died: 19 July 2017.) Joe Walters was a wing-half recruited by Clyde from Glasgow Perthshire during the 1955–56 season. He helped the Bully Wee win the Second Division title in 1956–57 and 12 months later appeared at right-half as Clyde defeated Hibernian to win the Scottish Cup final. A broken leg suffered playing for the Scottish League representative XI in September 1960 led to a lengthy time out but he returned to assist Clyde to a second Division Two title in 1961–62. He later played for Albion Rovers, Ards and Stenhousemuir before leaving senior football.

Ralph Wetton (Born: Rowlands Gill, County Durham, 6 June 1927. Died: Edmonton, North London, 2 June 2017.) Ralph Wetton was a tall, clever, ball-playing wing-half who signed for Tottenham Hotspur in August 1950. However, in five seasons at White Hart Lane he was mostly a deputy to the likes of Ron Burgess and Bill Nicholson. He featured regularly in the 1955–56 season for Plymouth Argyle but was then out of favour after the club were relegated and he moved on to Aldershot where he concluded his senior career.

Jeff Whalley (Born: Rossendale, 8 February 1952. Died: Blackburn, 23 February 2018.) Jeff Whalley was an apprentice with Blackburn Rovers before signing professional terms at the age of 18. A midfield player he was only ever on the fringes of the first team and made just three senior appearances during his time at Ewood Park. He subsequently played in Australia for South Sydney Croatia and more locally with Accrington Stanley, Great Harwood and Colne.

Jim White (Born: Parkstone, Dorset, 13 June 1942. Died: 24 July 2017.) Jim White became Bournemouth's youngest ever Football League player at the age of 15 when he turned out against Port Vale in April 1958. However he made no further appearances for the Cherries before signing for Portsmouth. It was not until moving on to Gillingham in the summer of 1963 that he experienced regular first-team football before he returned to Dean Court for a second spell. He was a near ever-present over four seasons before joining Cambridge United as player-coach during their first season in the Football League.

Ray Wilkins, MBE (Born: Hillingdon, 14 September 1956. Died: Tooting, 4 April 2018.) Ray Wilkins was one of the finest English players of the last 40 years and enjoyed a glittering career at home and also in Italy and Scotland. An intelligent central midfield player who was adept at maintaining control of the ball when under pressure, he was nicknamed 'The Crab' during his time at Manchester United for his tendency to play the safe option of the square ball. Ray started out as an apprentice with Chelsea and after signing professional forms quickly became a key figure in the side, featuring as an ever-present in the team that won promotion from Division Two in 1976–77. When Chelsea were relegated again at the end of the 1978–79 campaign he was sold to Manchester United for what was a club record fee. However, the only success gained at Old Trafford was an FA Cup winners' medal in 1983. He moved on to Serie A, spending three seasons with AC Milan, then after a brief association with Paris Saint-Germain he signed for Rangers in November 1987, winning two Scottish League titles and a League Cup during his time at Ibrox. A lengthy spell with Queens Park Rangers followed (during which there was the briefest of stays at Crystal Palace) before he concluded his playing career with cameo appearances at Wycombe, Hibernian, Millwall and Leyton Orient. He won 84 caps for England between 1976 and 1986, captaining the side on ten occasions. He later had spells as manager of Queens Park Rangers and Fulham and coached a number of clubs, notably Chelsea. Ray was the son of George and brother of Graham, Dean and Stephen, all of whom played in the Football League.

Ray Wilkins (Born: Church Gresley, 16 August 1928. Died: Derby, 3 March 2018.) Ray Wilkins was a centre-forward who signed as a professional for Derby County in January 1950 after completing a spell of National Service. He scored on his second appearance for the Rams at Molineux and although mostly a back-up player he had a useful scoring record when selected. He moved on to Boston United and in December 1954 was one of six former Derby players who turned out for the Pilgrims in an FA Cup tie at the Baseball Ground. Boston won 6-1 with Ray scoring twice. He made a brief return to senior football with Wrexham later in the 1950s and then played in non-league football for a number of clubs including Oswestry Town and Macclesfield Town.

Derek Wilkinson (Born: Stalybridge, 4 June 1935. Died: 13 September 2017.) Derek Wilkinson was a pacy winger who signed for Sheffield Wednesday from Stalybridge junior football and went on to make over 200 first team appearances for the Owls. He established himself in the line-up from November 1957 and was a near ever-present in the team that won the Second Division title in 1958–59, when he also made two appearances for the Football League representative XI.

Barrie Williams (Born: Carmarthen, 6 January 1939. Died: Spain, 23 April 2018.) Barrie Williams was best known as manager of Sutton United, leading the team to FA Cup success in the 1980s. In 1987–88 his team knocked out Aldershot and Peterborough United before going out to Middlesbrough in a third round replay, while the following season they reached the fourth round after eliminating holders Coventry City in a historic victory. He left Sutton in 1989 and after spell out of the game was briefly manager of the England women's team in 1991, later also having a spell as manager of Hendon.

Gordon Wills (Born: West Bromwich, 24 April 1934. Died: 10 January 2018.) Gordon Wills was an outside-left who was on the books of Wolverhampton Wanderers as a youngster but was unable to break into the first team. Moving on to Notts County in the summer of 1953 he established himself in the line up in the 1954–55 season. He went on to forge a reputation as a versatile forward and in 1956–57 led the scoring charts for County. He continued to feature regularly during a four-year spell at Leicester City although he missed out on a place in the 1961 FA Cup final team after being injured in the semi-final against Sheffield United. He eventually concluded his senior career at Walsall having made exactly 300 Football League appearances.

Billy Wilson (Born: Seaton Delaval, Northumberland, 10 July 1946. Died: 22 February 2018.) Full-back Billy Wilson joined Blackburn Rovers from North East club New Hartley Juniors and became a regular in the line up from the 1965–66 season. Shortly after Rovers were relegated to the old Third Division he signed for Portsmouth where he remained until retiring from the game. He made over 450 senior appearances during his career and in 2015 was chosen for a place in the Pompey Hall of Fame.

Paul Wilson (Born: Bangalore, India, 23 November 1950. Died: 18 September 2017.) Paul Wilson was born in India but raised in Glasgow and went on to become the only non-white player to appear for the Scotland international team in the twentieth century. He joined Celtic on leaving school and went on to spend a decade at Parkhead making over 200 first-team appearances. His best season was 1974–75 when he played and scored in four cup finals at Hampden (Drybrough, League Cup, Scottish Cup and Glasgow Cup) and also won his only cap for Scotland when he came off the bench for the final 15 minutes of the European Championship qualifying tie against Spain in February 1975. Paul went on to play for Motherwell and Partick then came out of retirement to play for Blantyre Celtic, winning a Scottish Junior cap.

Ray Wilson, MBE (Born: Shirebrook, 17 December 1934. Died: Huddersfield, 15 May 2018.) Ray Wilson was converted from half-back to the left-back position by Huddersfield Town manager Bill Shankly and never looked back in his career. He became a fixture in the Terriers' line-up from the 1957–58 season and in April 1960 he made his debut for England against Scotland at Hampden. Although playing in the Second Division at Leeds Road he was justifiably recognised as the best full-back in the country, offering pace and mobility in the position, both relatively unusual characteristics in the early 1960s. In the summer of 1964 he was sold to Everton and two years later there followed an exceptional summer when he won the FA Cup with the Toffees and was a key member of the England team that lifted the World Cup for the first time in history. There followed a second FA Cup final appearance in 1968, with Everton on the losing side this time, before he wound down his playing career with spells at Oldham Athletic and Bradford City. In total he won 63 full caps for England between 1960 and 1968.

Ken Wimshurst (Born: South Shields, 23 March 1938. Died: Spain, 6 July 2017.) Wing-half Ken Wimshurst was on Newcastle United's books as a youngster before signing for Gateshead for whom he featured in their final season of League football. After an unsuccessful time at Wolverhampton Wanderers he moved on to Southampton where he made over 150 appearances. A player with good passing skills and vision, he contributed to the Saints' success in reaching the top flight in 1965–66 before joining Bristol City where he spent five seasons as a player and remained on the coaching staff until 1981.

Jim Witheford (Born: Ecclesall, Sheffield, 16 April 1930. Died: Launceston, Tasmania, 1 January 2018.) Jim Witheford was a Sheffield PE teacher playing on the wing for Norton Woodseats in the Yorkshire League before joining Chesterfield on amateur forms in December 1953. He made nine Football League appearances for the Spireites and subsequently had a very brief association with Grantham. In 1965 he emigrated to Australia where he appeared for Launceston United and in 1971 had the distinction of scoring 10 goals in a game for the club against Launceston Croatia.

Alan Withers (Born: Bulwell, Nottinghamshire, 20 October 1930. Died: 29 November 2017.) Alan Withers signed for Blackpool in the summer of 1949 and after doing well with the Central League team he stepped up to make a sensational debut at inside-left against Huddersfield Town in November 1950, scoring a hat trick in the first half of the game. He netted twice more in his next three appearances but rarely featured after that and moved on to Lincoln City in February 1955. He continued on the left wing at Sincil Bank and was a member of the team that won the last six games of the 1957–58 season to avoid relegation from the old Division Two in dramatic style. He later returned to his home town, assisting Notts County to promotion from the Fourth Division in 1959.

Allen Wood (Born: Newport, South Wales, 13 January 1941. Died: 2018.) Allen Wood was a centre-half who won amateur international honours for Wales while playing for Lovell's Athletic. In August 1962 he signed for Bristol Rovers, playing a solitary senior game as an amateur before signing professional forms. He moved to the Southern League with Merthyr Tydfil before making a comeback to the senior game when he signed for Newport County in the summer of 1967. He went on to make over 150 appearances for County and was later involved in coaching at the club as well as serving as chairman of the former players' association.

Wilson Wood (Born: Whitburn, West Lothian, 25 January 1943. Died: 2017.) After a brief spell on the books of Newcastle United, Wilson Wood joined Rangers as an 18-year-old, eventually breaking through to win a regular first-team place at left-half in the 1964–65 season, when he also helped the Ibrox club win the League Cup final. Later he had two seasons as a regular with Dundee United before concluding his career with spells at Heart of Midlothian and Raith Rovers.

John Worsdale (Born: Stoke-on-Trent, 29 October 1948. Died: Stoke-on-Trent, 22 September 2017.) John Worsdale was a pacy winger who captained the Stoke City team that won the 1963 English Schools FA title before joining his local club as an apprentice. He was restricted to just four first team games before he moved to Lincoln City on a free transfer in May 1971. He spent three seasons at Sincil Bank, making over 70 senior appearances, but was released in the summer of 1974 and finished his playing career with spells at Worksop Town, Gainsboro

DOMESTIC LANDMARKS 2017–18

AUGUST 2017

4 Bradley Johnson scored the first league goal of the season in the 11th minute against Sunderland at the Stadium of Light. The black cats equalised in the 42nd minute with a penalty from Lewis Grabban and the match finished 1-1

15 The Premier League became 25 years old.

21 Everton's Wayne Rooney became only the second player to score 200 goals in the Premier League. He scored the first goal in the 1-1 draw with Manchester City at the Etihad Stadium after 35 minutes. Raheem Sterling equalised with only 11 minutes remaining. The only other player to have reached 200 goals in the Premier League is Alan Shearer (260).

SEPTEMBER 2017

25 Gareth Barry broke the all-time Premier League appearance record in his 633rd game, a 2-0 defeat to Arsenal at the Emirates with two goals from Alexandre Lacazette spoiling the celebrations. He overtook Ryan Giggs' total of 632.

OCTOBER 2017

5 England qualified for the World Cup in Russia. Harry Kane's late strike in the Group F qualifier against Slovenia helped England through. Kane's 94th minute winner was his 11th international goal in 22 appearances.

17 Liverpool broke their record away victory in Europe with a 7-0 victory over Maribor at the Stadion Ljudski in Champions League Group E. Goals from Firmino (2), Salah (2), Coutinho, Oxlade-Chamberlain and Alexander-Arnold surpassed 5-0 wins against Icelandic club Reykjavik in 1964 and Irish club Crusaders in 1975.

NOVEMBER 2017

1 Sergio Aguero became Manchester City's all-time top scorer after netting his 178th goal for the club in the 4-2 away victory over Napoli in the Group F Champions League match. City came from behind to book their place in the knockout stage of the competition.

9 Northern Ireland's Steven Davis won his 100th cap for his county in the 0-1 defeat to Switzerland in the World Cup Qualifying play-off at Windsor Park.

11 Wisbech Town's goalkeeper Paul Bastock overtook Peter Shilton's all-time appearance record. The 47-year-old made his 1,250th appearance playing for away to Thetford Town in the FA Vase second round. His side managed a comfortable 4-1 victory.

DECEMBER 2017

31 Arsene Wenger broke the all-time Premier League record by managing in 811 games. He surpassed Alex Ferguson's total of 810 matches in the 1-1 draw with West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns. An own goal by James McClean looked to have given Arsenal the win, but a late Jay Rodriguez penalty brought the Baggies level.

JANUARY 2018

8 The FA Cup third-round tie between Brighton & Hove Albion and Crystal Palace became the first competitive British VAR (video assisted referee) match. Neil Swarbrick was the video referee assisted by Peter Kirkup while Andre Marriner was the match referee. Marriner did not need to call on the VAR until late in the game when Glenn Murray scored for Brighton and after consultation the goal was awarded. Brighton ran out 2-1 winners.

FEBRUARY 2018

3 Brighton & Hove Albion's game against West Ham United was the 10,000th Premier League match to be played. The Seagulls were 3-1 winners.

4 Harry Kane scored his 100th Premier League goal with a penalty in added time against Liverpool. The match finished 2-2. Kane's 100th goal came in his 141st appearance, only Alan Shearer was quicker to the milestone taking 124 appearances.

MARCH 2018

11 Arsenal goalkeeper Petr Cech became the first keeper to reach 200 clean sheets. Cech saved a Troy Deeney penalty in Arsenal's 3-0 victory with the goals coming from Mustafi, Aubameyang and Mkhitaryan.

23 Gareth Bale became the top goalscorer for Wales with a hat-trick against China. Playing in Ryan Giggs' first game as Wales manager, Bale reached 29 goals in 69 appearances breaking the record of Ian Rush who scored 28 in 26 appearances.

MAY 2018

9 Manchester City broke three Premier League records. The record for most points (97) beat the previous record of 95 set by Chelsea; the record for most league wins in a season with 31 which also beat the previous record of 30 held by Chelsea; and the 3-1 victory over Brighton & Hove Albion also set a new record for the most goals scored in a single season at 105, two more than Chelsea's 103. All of this while still one game to play in the season!

13 Promoted clubs Newcastle United, Brighton & Hove Albion and Huddersfield Town avoided relegation – only the third Premier League season this feat has occurred following 2001–02 and 2011–12.

Zinedine Zidane 3 wins, 2015–16, 2016–17, 2017–18 (Real Madrid).

REINSTATED WINNERS EXCLUDED FROM NEXT COMPETITION

1993 Marseille originally stripped of title. This was rescinded but they were not allowed to compete the following season.

EUROPEAN LANDMARKS 2017–18

SEPTEMBER 2017

20 Borussia Dortmund scored their 3000th goal in the Bundesliga. A 79th minute goal from USA international Christian Pulisic in a 3-0 victory over Hamburg took Dortmund to the milestone. Only Bayern Munich and Werder Bremen have scored more goals in the Bundesliga.

OCTOBER 2017

5 Robert Lewandowski became Poland's all-time leading goalscorer, scoring a hat-trick against Armenia in their Group E World Cup qualifier in Armenia. Two first-half goals took his total to 49 to overtake the record that had stood at 48 for Wlodzimierz Lubanski. A second-half strike brought up 50 goals.

Luka Modric made his 100th international appearance for Croatia in the 1-1 draw with Finland in the Group I World Cup qualifier. A 57th minute opener for Croatia from Mario Mandzukic looked to have won the game until Pyry Soiri equalised in the last minute.

Yossi Benayoun made his 100th international appearance for Israel in the 1-0 victory over Liechtenstein in the Group G World Cup qualifier in Vaduz. Eitan Tibi's 21st minute goal proved to be the winner for Israel.

Arda Turan made his 100th international appearance for Turkey in the 3-0 defeat to Iceland in the Group I qualifier in Eskisehir. Johann Berg Gundmundsson, Birkir Bjarnason and Kari Arnason scored the goals for Iceland.

9 Sergio Busquets made his 100th international appearance for Spain in the 1-0 victory over Israel in the Group G World Cup qualifier. Asier Illarramendi scored the 76th minute winner for Spain.

10 Lionel Messi became the all-time top goalscorer in South American World Cup qualifying. His hat-trick in Argentina's 3-1 victory in Ecuador helped his country qualify for the 2018 World Cup in Russia. His total goals in South American qualifying came to 21 surpassing Hernan Crespo and Luiz Suarez.

NOVEMBER 2017

13 Italy failed to qualify for the World Cup for the first time since 1958. The 0-0 draw with Sweden in Milan meant that they lost 0-1 on aggregate. Goalkeeper Gianluigi Buffon retired from international football.

14 Branislav Ivanovic made his 100th international appearance for Serbia in the 1-1 friendly draw with Korea Republic in Ulsan. Adam Ljajic opened the scoring for Serbia in the 59th minute, but Ja-Cheol Koo equalised with a penalty three minutes later.

22 Zlatan Ibrahimovic became the first player to appear for seven different clubs in the Champions League. He came off the bench for Manchester United in their 1-0 defeat to Basel at St Jakob Park. He had previously lined up for Ajax, Juventus, Inter Milan, Barcelona, AC Milan and Paris Saint-Germain.

26 Zinedine Zidane became the first manager to win the Champions League in three successive seasons. Real Madrid's 3-1 victory over Liverpool meant that they had won the elite European competition three times in a row – the first time since Bayern Munich between 1974 and 1976.

JUNE 2018

2 Jan Vertonghen became the first player to make 100 international appearances for Belgium in the 0-0 friendly draw with Portugal.
